Contents

	gures and tables were all the Moores and tables were appointed to the second support to second support the second support to second support the second support to second support the second support the second support to second support the second support to second support the second support to second sup	vi
Introduc	Pedagogy and Social Justice for wholeheartedly embracing the notion. Thanks to Peter Maddocks for How to be a caleborn 20Al 4d fin	Byrls
Section	One: A participatory paradigm
one	Participatory practice
two	Participatory practice meets the non-participatory world The cycle model show? against your wints the semit belduorT Spiral of learning and action or some smooth street and serious or some seminary of the	35
three	A participatory worldview with a participatory wit	59
four	Participatory practice in a non-participatory world	81
Section Two: Participatory praxis to mue betaennoorenin ne se estate est five	Bringing together different ways of knowing Towards transformative praxis	103 six	A matter of balance A transformative model for participatory practice	127
seven	Critical reflection	151
eight	Transformative practice blow and gniese to sysw unanaffectual blow and	171
nine	Elements of integrative practice Becoming critical in thought and action	189
Referen Index	ces	223 243