

Contents

Preface	ix
---------	----

Part I

INTRODUCTION

1	National Elections and the Autonomy of American State Party Systems	3
2	The Variants of Two-Party Competition	19

Part II

THE ERODING FOUNDATION OF PARTY UNITY IN EASTERN INDUSTRIAL STATES

	Introduction	35
3	The Once Firm Foundation: New York and New Jersey	41
4	Deindustrialization and the Erosion of Party Unity: Ohio and Pennsylvania	65

Part III

THE WESTERN TRADITION OF PARTY DISUNITY

	Introduction	97
5	Candidate-Centered Politics in the Desert Southwest: New Mexico and Arizona	99
6	Panning for Partisans in a Turbulent Environment: California	131
7	Where Federalism Is a Solvent of Party: The Pacific Northwest	155
8	Sectionalism Disrupts the Party System: Idaho	185
9	Competition and the Sources of Candidate-Centeredness in State Politics	201

	Appendix	211
--	----------	-----

	Notes	217
--	-------	-----

	Bibliography	231
--	--------------	-----

	Index	237
--	-------	-----