

Contents

Pedagogical museum of J. A. Comenius in Prague

4 - 5

Introduction

6 - 7

Contents

9

History

9

Residence of the museum

10

The collection fund

10

Principal activities of the museum

13

Exposition

14

Content of the exhibition

15

A collection of wall charts

16

A collection of textbooks

16

A collection of old art prints

16

A collection of certificates of education
and of vocational certificates

The Czech school system in the course of centuries

A short overview

20 - 23

Medieval school system

24 - 27

The Czech school system before the Battle of White Mountain

28 - 33

The Czech school system after the Battle of White Mountain

34 - 37

The Theresian reforms and the first half of the 19th century

38 - 43

The second half of the 19th century

44 - 45

The 20th century | The last years of the Austria-Hungary

46 - 49

The era of the First Republic (1918 - 1938)

50 - 53

Years of the Second Republic and of the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia (1938 - 1945)

54 - 55

First years after the end of the World War II (1945 - 1948)

56 - 59

The socialist school system (1948 - 1989)

60 - 63

The school system at the turn of the third millennium

64 - 65

A curious crib note donated to the museum by the Vice-Rector of the Czech Technical University in Prague in August 2009

Pictorial supplements

68 - 71

Maps

72 - 77

Wall charts

78 - 81

School reports

82 - 83

Authors of the exposition

▲
Little case, a product by inmates of the Bakule's Institute in Prague, 1920s. The institute was established in 1919 by František Bakule (1877 - 1957), who dealt with education and teaching of handicapped children. This great teacher sought for new educational and teaching methods. The institute terminated its operation in 1937.

curious and noble donated to the museum by the Vice-Rector of the Czech Technical University in Prague in August 2004.

Pictorial supplements

68 - 71

Maps

72 - 77

Wall charts

78 - 81

School reports

