

Contents

List of Maps	xii
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xv
Note on Spelling	xvii
Note on Dates	xviii
Prologue	I

PART I THE MAKING OF A WORLD (SEVENTH—TENTH CENTURY)

1 A New Power in an Old World	7
The world into which the Arabs came	7
The language of poetry	12
Muhammad and the appearance of Islam	14
2 The Formation of an Empire	22
The succession to Muhammad: the conquest of an empire	22
The caliphate of Damascus	25
The caliphate of Baghdad	32
3 The Formation of a Society	38
The end of political unity	38
A unified society: the economic bases	43
Unity of faith and language	46
The Islamic world	54
4 The Articulation of Islam	59
The question of authority	59
The power and justice of God	62
The shari'a	65
The Traditions of the Prophet	69
The path of the mystics	72
The path of reason	75

PART II ARAB MUSLIM SOCIETIES
(ELEVENTH—FIFTEENTH CENTURY)

5	The Arab Muslim World	83
	States and dynasties	83
	Arabs, Persians and Turks	87
	Geographical divisions	89
	Muslim Arabs and others	96
6	The Countryside	98
	Land and its use	98
	Tribal societies	104
7	The Life of Cities	109
	Markets and cities	109
	The city population	111
	Law and the ' ulama	113
	Slaves	116
	Muslims and non-Muslims in the city	117
	Women in the city	119
	The shape of the city	122
	Houses in the city	125
	The chain of cities	128
8	Cities and Their Rulers	130
	The formation of dynasties	130
	The alliance of interests	133
	Control of the countryside	137
	Ideas of political authority	141
9	Ways of Islam	147
	The Pillars of Islam	147
	The friends of God	152
10	The Culture of the ' Ulama	158
	The ' ulama and the shari'a	158
	The transmission of learning	163
	Kalam	166
	Al-Ghazali	167
11	Divergent Paths of Thought	172
	Islam of the philosophers	172
	Ibn 'Arabi and theosophy	176
	Ibn Taymiyya and the Hanbali tradition	179
	The development of Shi'ism	181
	Jewish and Christian learning	186
12	The Culture of Courts and People	189
	Rulers and patrons	189
	Poetry and story	193
	Music	197
	Understanding the world	199

PART III THE OTTOMAN AGE
(SIXTEENTH–EIGHTEENTH CENTURY)

13 The Ottoman Empire	209
The limits of political power	209
Ottoman government	214
The Ottomans and Islamic tradition	220
Government in the Arab provinces	225
14 Ottoman Societies	231
Population and wealth in the empire	231
The Arab provinces	234
The culture of the Arab provinces	238
Beyond the empire: Arabia, the Sudan, Morocco	243
15 The Changing Balance of Power in the Eighteenth Century	249
Central and local authorities	249
Arab Ottoman society and culture	253
The world of Islam	256
Changing relations with Europe	258

PART IV THE AGE OF EUROPEAN EMPIRES
(1800–1939)

16 European Power and Reforming Governments (1800–1860)	265
The expansion of Europe	265
The beginnings of European empire	268
Reforming governments	271
17 European Empires and Dominant Élites (1860–1914)	279
The limits of independence	279
The partition of Africa: Egypt and the Maghrib	282
The alliance of dominant interests	285
Control of the land	287
The condition of the people	292
The dual society	295
18 The Culture of Imperialism and Reform	299
The culture of imperialism	299
The rise of the intelligentsia	302
The culture of reform	304
The emergence of nationalism	308
The continuity of Islamic tradition	311

19	The Climax of European Power (1914-1939)	315
	The supremacy of Great Britain and France	315
	The primacy of British and French interests	320
	Immigrants and the land	322
	The growth of the indigenous élite	324
	Attempts at political agreement	328
20	Changing Ways of Life and Thought
	(1914-1939)	333
	Population and the countryside	333
	Life in the new cities	336
	The culture of nationalism	340
	Islam of the élite and the masses	345

PART V THE AGE OF NATION-STATES

(SINCE 1939)

21	The End of the Empires (1939-1962)	353
	The Second World War	353
	National independence (1945-1956)	356
	The Suez crisis	365
	The Algerian war	369
22	Changing Societies (1940s and 1950s)	373
	Population and economic growth	373
	The profits of growth: merchants and landowners	379
	The power of the state	381
	Rich and poor in the city	384
23	National Culture (1940s and 1950s)	389
	Problems of education	389
	Language and self-expression	392
	Islamic movements	397
24	The Climax of Arabism (1950s and 1960s)	401
	Popular nationalism	401
	The ascendancy of Nasirism	407
	The crisis of 1967	411
25	Arab Unity and Disunity (since 1967)	416
	The crisis of 1973	416
	The predominance of American influence	419
	The interdependence of Arab countries	423
	Arab disunity	426
26	A Disturbance of Spirits (since 1967)	434
	Ethnic and religious divisions	434
	Rich and poor	436
	Women in society	439
	A heritage and its renewal	442

The stability of regimes	447
The fragility of regimes	453
Afterword 2002	459
Maps	473
Tables	497
The Family of the Prophet	499
The Shi'i Imams	500
The Caliphs	501
Important Dynasties	503
Ruling Families in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries	505
Notes	508
Bibliography	514
Index of Terms	544
Index	547