

Content

Foreword	8
I. A Romantic Story of the Meadow and the Czech and Saxony Halls	12
II. The Arrival of Johann Georg Pupp to Carlsbad and the Acquisition of the Czech Hall	23
III. The Story of Aristocratic Festivities Held at the Halls	27
IV. The 2 nd Generation of the Pupp: Brothers Josef and Johann and the New Owners of the Czech Hall	40
V. Goethe's Pictures and Poems, Beethoven's Concert, the Czech and Saxony Halls during the German Liberation Wars, the Welcome of Marshall Blücher	44
VI. The Great Flood of 1821	50
VII. The Pre-Revolutionary Year 1848 Events, Nicolo Paganini and the Era of Famous Concerts	54
VIII. Johann Peter Pupp, a Bereft But Still Wealthy Heir of the Czech Hall	62
IX. The 3 rd Generation of the Pupp: Heinrich Pupp, a Successful Tinner and Needle-Maker	65
X. Attempts of the Pupp to Reacquire the Czech Hall, the Convention of Natural Historians and Famed Masquerade Balls	69
XI. Remembering the 1866 Dumpling Day	73
XII. The 4 th Generation of the Pupp: The Reacquisition of the Czech Hall by Anton, Julius and Heinrich and the Foundation of the Pupp Bros. Family Company in 1872	76
XIII. The Czech and Saxony Halls Cultural and Construction Chronicle from the 1860s until the 1880s, the Great Flood of 1890 and the End of the Old Times	83
XIV. The Golden Age of the Grandhotel Pupp after 1890, the Construction of the Grandhotel Pupp, Flower Parades and the Near Selling of the Grandhotel Pupp	100
XV. The Heyday of the Grandhotel Pupp and Karlovy Vary in the 1900s, the 5 th Generation of the Pupp, the Torn Trousers of King Edward VII and the Downfall of the Monarchy	112
XVI. The Grandhotel Pupp and World War I	125
XVII. The 6 th Generation of the Pupp and Their Activities from 1920 to 1945	127
XVIII. The Acquisition of God's Eye and Its Reconstruction in Grandhotel Pupp Style	131
XIX. Grandhotel Pupp from 1937 to 1945 under the General Manager, Heinrich Gerlach	133
XX. The Fate of the Grandhotel Pupp in the Years from 1945 until 1989	137
XXI. The Story of the Grandhotel Pupp at the Turn of the 20 th and 21 st Century	150
XXII. The Pupp Family Tree	156
Resources and Literature	160

