

Contents

Why “Not Only Syria?” How an Idea Was Born and Put into Practice Kacper Rekawek	v
The Foreign Fighter Phenomenon: Case Study of the Netherlands Jeanine de Roy van Zuijdewijn	1
Danish Foreign Fighters: Past and Present Patterns Chris Holmsted Larsen	12
Profiling Foreign Fighters in Eastern Ukraine: A Theoretical Introduction Arkadiusz Legieć	22
Foreign Fighters in Ukraine: Risk Analysis from the Point of View of NATO Miroslav Mareš	31
Belgian Foreign Fighters in Syria and Iraq – May 2016 Pieter Van Ostaeyen	40
Caliphate Citizens: Revisiting the Concept of “Foreign Fighters” Egdūnas Račius	52
The Elephant in the Room: Russian Foreign Fighters in Ukraine András Rác	60
The Middle East & Foreign Fighters in Syria: Cases of Egypt and the GCC Countries Eman Ragab	74
Meeting Them in the Field: A Closer Look at French Foreign Fighters in Ukraine Pierre Sautreuil	91
Tunisian Foreign Fighters: Between De-Territorialisation and Re-Territorialisation Habib M. Sayah	98
Come and Go: Trajectories of Foreign Fighters in and out of Moldova Stanislav Secrieru	108
Foreign Fighters, Religious Radicalism and Violent Extremism in Albania and the Western Balkans Ebi Spahiu	125
Subject Index	135
Author Index	137