

Contents

Introduction /6

I. From Spiritual Centre to Castellated Hill /10

A Symbol of Spiritual Power /11

The Great Patrons of the Monastery (Later Deanery) Church of the Holy Cross /13

The Town and the Castle in Late Medieval Times and the Dawn of the Renaissance /16

II. The Pernštejns in Litomyšl /21

From Praefectus to Chancellor /21

From Legend to History /23

From Moravia to Bohemia /24

From Pardubice to Litomyšl /26

From Litomyšl to the Court /27

From the Chancellery to the End /28

III. The Chateau-Residence of the Supreme Chancellor of the Czech Kingdom /30

The Renaissance Palace above the Town /32

An Arcaded Chateau /36

'Il Teatro' /42

The Façade: "A Different Type of Painting" /47

The Last of the Pernštejns /49

IV. The Chateau Mount under the Counts of Trauttmansdorff (1650–1757) /51

The Piarists in Litomyšl /52

The Monastery Projects /57

The Piarist Church of the Finding of the Holy Cross /59

The Sculptors and Painters of the Piarist Church /64

František Maxmilián Kaňka in Litomyšl /69

V. The Waldstein-Wartenberg Family in Litomyšl (1757–1855) and the Changes to the Chateau Surroundings /74

The Waldstein-Wartenbergs, Jan Jiří Beba, Jan Kryštof Fabich /75

The Chateau Theatre /88

The Theatre Interior and Josef Platzer /92

VI. Historic Litomyšl and the Changes of the Modern Era /95

The Present Merges with the Past: The Chief Architect of the Town /96

The Task of the Town Architect /98

"Old" Architecture versus "New"? /99

Contemporary Public Space in a Historic Town /100

The Litomyšl Miracle /102

Genius loci and Enigma loci /104

Select Bibliography /108

Map /110

Index of Names /114