

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS	9
CHAPTER 1 STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK	15
The new Development Co-operation Law	15
Target country strategy.....	16
Target sector strategy	18
Consistency with DAC strategy: Shaping the 21st Century	19
Attitude of Parliament and public opinion	19
CHAPTER 2 AID MANAGEMENT AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE AID PROGRAMME	21
Division of political responsibilities at ministerial level	21
Implementation of the programme through Lux-Development	23
Implementation of the programme through NGOs	24
Co-ordination and coherence	25
Quality and efficiency controls	27
CHAPTER 3 DEVELOPMENT PRIORITIES	31
Reducing poverty	31
Social services: health and education.....	31
Promoting the private sector	32
Protecting the environment	32
Promoting gender equality	32
Human rights and democratisation.....	33
CHAPTER 4 DEVELOPMENT AID: VOLUME, COMPOSITION AND CONDITIONS	35
Aid volume and trends	35
Composition	36
Bilateral aid: geographical and sectoral allocation.....	36
Multilateral assistance	38
Financial conditions of aid, liaison and procurement	38
Other official flows, private flows and statistical reporting	39
ANNEX I THE AID PROGRAMME OF LUXEMBOURG FOR CAPE VERDE AND SENEGAL	41
ANNEXE II TABLES AND FIGURE	45
PRESS RELEASE: DAC AID REVIEW OF LUXEMBOURG	53
DESCRIPTION OF KEY TERMS	57

Tables

Table 1. Trend in the number of recipient countries	18
Table 2. Breakdown of ODA between ministries (disbursements).....	22
Table 3. Trends in Luxembourg aid	35
Table II-1. Main ODA volume indicators	46
Table II-2. Net ODA disbursements by major purposes	48
Table II-3. Major recipients of net bilateral ODA disbursements	49
Table II-4. Net ODA disbursements by major groupings and regions	50
Table II-5. Distribution of bilateral ODA commitments by major purposes	51
Table II-6. Total financial flows	52

There has been a sharp increase in the amount of Luxembourg's development co-operation budget and its official development assistance (ODA) disbursements.

Figures

Figure II-1. Net ODA disbursements	47
--	----