

Contents

Saint Florian has returned to his place in the square in Ostrava	2
According to legend, the Beskydy underground hides priceless treasures	5
Legends from Prašivá and how to find a husband	8
Clues suggest Beethoven may have composed his Fifth in Opava	11
Čertův mlýn at Gírová: the work of the devil or a glacier?	12
The Church of Saint Katherine in Hrabová is shrouded in legend	15
Odry is a town that acknowledges the Hussite tradition	16
The synagogue in Krnov still looks as it did in the year it was built	19
People sought treatment in Karlova Studánka as early as the 17 th century	20
Colour photography was born in Rýmařov	22
Could the Celts tell the seasons at Čertův mlýn? Why not?	25
The Virgin Mary in the Cliffs attracts pilgrims and tourists	26
The mystery of the crypt at the basilica in Frýdek	29
Knights sleep with their armies beneath the mountain of Velká Čantoryje	30
No one was permitted to enter the Forbidden Forest	33
The Golden Lime near Guntramovice is shrouded in legend	34
The Kyselka and Smradlavka springs rise near Hostašovice	37
Peter's stones, a place where witches probably did not fornicate	39
The Slag Heap Ema is rather like an Etna in Ostrava	40
Húkalkas were said to live in the forests around Hukvaldy	43