

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

Acknowledgements

---

UNIT I: AESTHETICS 2

INTRODUCTION 3

Point of departure 3

Introduction to aesthetics 5

CHAPTER 1: SHAPE 8

CHAPTER 2 : PATTERN, TEXTURE, FORM 14

Pattern 14

Texture 19

Form 20

CHAPTER 3 : LIGHT 23

Kinds of light 23

Direct from a single source

Diffused from specific source

Fully diffused

Silhouette

Flash

Changes in light

Elements of light 29

High key

Continuous tone

Shadows

Low key

CHAPTER 4 : LINE 33

Use of line 33

Characteristics of line 34

Effects of lines 34

Straight lines

Broken (discontinuous) lines

Vertical lines

Diagonals

Other

CHAPTER 5 : SCALE, SPACE, COMPOSITION	43
Scale	43
Space	45
The physical space of a photograph : compositional space
Representational space
Composition	47
UNIT II: DESIGN	52
<hr/>
The Design Variables	53
CHAPTER 6 : BALANCE	54
Visual balance : its structure	54
Relationship between objects	56
Influences on visual balance	58
Weight
Direction
Top and bottom
Left and right
CHAPTER 7 :
DOMINANCE, PROPORTION, RHYTHM	71
Dominance	71
Relationship between dominance and balance
Proportion	75
Control of proportion
Rhythm	77
CHAPTER 8: PERSPECTIVE	82
Perspective and the gradient	82
Visual experience of the gradient : spatial orientation	83
The gradient and three dimensions	84
Controlling perspective	85
Perspective and the picture plane	88
Perspective and the photographer's opinion	90
Isometric perspective	90
Some examples of isometric perspective in photography	93

UNIT III : CONTENT	96
The Content Variables	97
Some thoughts on fine art and documentary photography
What the content variables do
CHAPTER 9: WHO	100
The Individual Who	100
Portraits of individuals: the Literal Who
Portraits of individuals: the Symbolic Who
Portraits of individuals with other people present
The Group Who	103
The Aggregate or Representative Who	104
The "Typical " Who
The Circumstantial Who
The role model
The negative role model
Sympathy - or not - with the subject
The Universal Who	114
The Who on many levels at once	114
The Who of the photographer	116
CHAPTER 10: WHAT AND WHERE	118
What	118
Subordination of the Who element	118
Statement about a person or group through an object/objects	118
Objects representing circumstances	118
In What Context? (1)
In What Context? (2)
In the opinion/reality of the subject
In the opinion/reality of the photographer
In the opinion/reality of the audience for the image
Objects used as symbols	125
Connections between people
Connections between ideas
To show the attitude of subject
To show the opinion of the photographer
Where	125
Responses to a Where photograph	126
Tourist, observer, or participant?	127
Contexts revealed by Where	128
Visual clues for Where	129
The Where inside us	133
CHAPTER 11 - HOW AND WHY	134
How	134
The element How as a concept of process	134
How as a question of the human condition	137
How as information gap	138

Why	140
Asking the viewer to challenge something "known"	140
Documentarian/anthropologist versus voyeur revisited	141
Bringing the question home	141
CHAPTER 12 : WHEN	145
Chronological time 1 : historical	145
Chronological time 2 : time of day or season	148
Chronological time 3 : When in the course of a lifetime	149
Genres of When : psychological time	151
Psychological time 1 : suspended time
Psychological time 2 : peak time, or "the decisive moment"
Psychological time 3 : random time
CHAPTER 13 : JUXTAPOSITION	157
Introduction and definition	157
Early photomontage'	158
Some basic forms of juxtaposition	159
Forms of juxtaposition 1 :
opposing concepts (political)
Forms of juxtaposition 2 :
heightened association,different effect (political)
Forms of juxtaposition 3 :
image and text (social and political)
Foms of juxtaposition 4 :
direct challenge to dominant ideologies
"Found" images of opposing concepts (social and political)
"Found" images of opposing concepts (general)
Juxtaposition of aesthetic and design elements	172
Putting it all together	174
APPENDIX	178
<hr/>
Glossary	179
Notes on the illustrations	185
Notes on the text	203
Index of represented photographers	208
Bibliography	211