

Contents

i. Religion as an Object of Philosophical Study	1
ii. Greek and Roman Insights into the Nature of Religion: Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Cicero, Seneca	14
iii. Christian Conceptions of Belief: Early Church Fathers, Augustine	25
iv. The Relation of Faith to Reason in Aquinas and the Reformers: Aquinas, Luther, Calvin	36
v. Modern Interpretations of Religion, I: Hume, Kant, Hegel, Kierkegaard	53
vi. Modern Interpretations of Religion, II: Mill, Marx, Dewey, Freud	89
vii. Religion and the State in Western Democracies: Jacques Maritain	113 viii. Religion and the State under U.S. Constitution: John Courtney Murray	133
ix. Oriental Religions and Similar Cultural Manifestations: Buddhism, Confucianism	147
x. The Unity of Religious Experience	159

Bibliography / 169

Index / 173