

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction: Thinking with and about Augustine	1
1 A grim paternity?	6
The alleged sins of the father	6
The grand architect and the builders	8
The West that never was: the theological critique	13
Love in the time of avarice: the postmodern critique	18
2 De Trinitate and the aesthetics of salvation	27
The aesthetics of salvation	27
Delight and the beauty of God	47
The Body of Christ and the eros of faith	55
3 Christology, cosmology and the mechanics of grace	72
On the intelligibility of the Pelagian controversy	72
Pelagianism: a problem of trinitarian theology?	74
Creation and the mechanics of grace	82
Augustine's doxological self	90
4 The subtle triumph of Pelagianism	106
On winning the battle and losing the war	106
Duelling cosmologies	109
Pelagianizing Augustine	117
5 An Augustinian parody: Descartes and modern stoicism	134
An overlooked chapter in the story of modern origins	134

CONTENTS

Why Augustine is not a Cartesian	144
Why Descartes is not Augustinian	161

Postscript: Modernity in Augustinian hindsight	178
Notes	181
Primary sources and translations	277
Index	280

xix	Acknowledgments
ix	Abbreviations
I	Introduction: Thinking with and about Augustine
6	A grim paternity?
	The alleged sins of the father 6
	The grand architect and the builders 8
	The West that never was: the theological critique 13
	Love in the time of unbelief: the postmodern critique 18
27	De Trinitate and the aesthetics of salvation
	The aesthetics of salvation 27
	Delight and the beauty of God 47
	The Body of Christ and the cross of faith 55
72	Christology, cosmology and the mechanics of grace
	On the intelligibility of the Pelagian controversy 72
	Pelagianism: a problem of trinitarian theology 74
	Creation and the mechanics of grace 82
	Augustine's doxological self 90
106	The subtle triumph of Pelagianism
	On winning the battle and losing the war 106
	Dueling cosmologies 109
	Pelagianizing Augustine 117
134	An Augustinian parody: Descartes and modern stoicism
	An overlooked chapter in the story of modern origins 134