

Contents

Foreword	ix
Thomas Bornemann
Preface	xiii
Paul Leung
Introduction	xix
Chapter 1. How Rich and Fulfilled My Life Has Been: A Personal Perspective of Mobility “Impairment”	1
Ela Yazzie-King
Chapter 2. Understandings of the Disability Concept: A Complex and Diverse Concept	5
Marianne Hedlund
Chapter 3. Disability Harms: Exploring Internalized Ableism	19
Fiona Kumari Campbell
Chapter 4. But Stroke Happens to Older People Doesn’t It? The Experiences of “Young” People Following Stroke	35
Tara Catalano and Elizabeth Kendall
Chapter 5. “Come Sit with Me; Let’s Yarn Together for a Little While”: Resilience Factors in Facing Cardiovascular and Emotional Disabilities	55
Lauraine Barlow

Chapter 6.	Disability in Arab Societies Numan Gharaibeh	63
Chapter 7.	We Can Cry Later: A Story of Surviving Cancer Paige Stager	81
Chapter 8.	Disability as a Human Perception: Personal and Professional Reactions to American Indian Families' Narratives about Their Children's Disabilities R. Cruz Begay, Betty G. Brown, and Roger G. Bounds	87
Chapter 9.	Traumatic Brain Injury and Disability as a Consequence of Assault: Focus on Intimate Partner Violence Rosalie J. Ackerman and Martha E. Banks	107
Chapter 10.	"I Thought I Was Going to Live Forever" Reva Mariah S. Gover	123
Chapter 11.	Coping Following Traumatic Brain Injury: Lessons from Autobiographical Accounts Elizabeth Kendall, Melissa Kendall, and Heidi Muenchberger	129
Chapter 12.	Functional and Psychosocial Aspects of Late-Onset Hearing Loss Charlene M. Kampfe	143
Chapter 13.	Disability in Islam: Insights into Theology, Law, History, and Practice Isra Bhatti, Asad Ali Moten, Mobin Tawakkul, and Mona Amer	157
Chapter 14.	Living with a Learning Disability and Other Marginalized Statuses: A Multilevel Analysis Katherine E. McDonald, Christopher B. Keys, and Fabricio E. Balcazar	177
Chapter 15.	Persons and Nonpersons: Intellectual Disability, Personhood, and Social Capital among the Mixe of Southern Mexico George S. Gotto IV	193
Chapter 16.	Sharing My Strengths and Winning against Obesity Michelle Pieper	211
Chapter 17.	The Discursive Construction and Invalidation of Disability Stephen Lee Hodgkins and Sid Baility	213
Chapter 18.	Shubharthis in India: Destigmatizing Schizophrenia, a Move toward Inclusion Anuradha Sovani	231

Chapter 19. Excerpts from Meditations of the Heart on the Workings (or Not) of the Hand Bernadette Blount Salley	243
Chapter 20. A Taonga Is a Taonga in Any Language Huhana Hickey	249
Afterword: Reclaiming Globalization for Disability—Further Insights	257
Index	267
About the Advisory Board Members	273
About the Editors and Contributors	277