

Contents

1. The Problem of Law	I
2. Decision, For One and For the Many	II
3. The Exaltation of the Will	2I
4. The Genius of the Place	33
5. The Service Law May Offer to Life in Common	5I
A. Concepts of Law	52
B. Different Laws as Different Catalysts for a Life in Common	56
1. Authority as Perfecting Reason	57
2. Authority, Reason, and Will	60
3. Authority, Reason, and Imagination	66
a) Force and Imagination	67
b) Reason and Imagination	69
c) Extrinsic Imaginative Appeals	76
d) Intrinsic Imaginative Appeals	79
e) The Separation of Powers	85
f) The Price of Imagination	9I
C. Different Kinds of Life in Common	IO3
6. Appreciating the Limits of the Service Conception of Authority	IO9
A. Limits to Guidance	II3
B. The Criteria of Legitimacy and Their Value	I24
C. Alternative Authorities, Alternative Regulation	I34
7. Ideas of Easy Virtue: Descriptions and Evaluation	I49
8. Law and Life in Common	I75
A. Life Without Law	I75
B. Law, Social Change, and Modernity	I79
C. Law, Regulatory Sophistication, and Ambition	I85
D. Law and Community, Past, Present, and Future	I87