

Contents

- 1 Introduction 1
 - References..... 9
- 2 The Debate Concerning Human Duties 11
 - 2.1 Human Duties Declarations: The Problem 12
 - 2.2 Critique of Human Duties Declarations..... 17
 - 2.3 Human Duties in International Human Rights Law 21
 - 2.3.1 Negative Individual Human Duties in International Human Rights Law 22
 - 2.3.2 Positive Individual Human Duties in International Human Rights Law 26
 - 2.4 Conclusion: Human Duties Compared 32
 - References..... 35
- 3 Duties and Rights 39
 - 3.1 On Duties 41
 - 3.1.1 Perfect and Imperfect Duties 41
 - 3.1.2 Duties of Justice and Duties of Virtue 52
 - 3.1.3 The Relation Between Justice and Virtue 57
 - 3.2 On Rights 62
 - 3.2.1 What Are Rights?..... 62
 - 3.2.2 The Perspective of Rights and the Perspective of Duties 67
 - 3.3 Conclusion: An Overview 72
 - References..... 73
- 4 Two Contentious Duties..... 77
 - 4.1 International Individual Duties of Aid..... 78
 - 4.2 The Role and Significance of Duties to the Community
 - Within the Universal Declaration..... 86
 - 4.2.1 Drafting History 88
 - 4.2.2 Interpretation..... 91
 - 4.2.3 What Duties? 98

| | |
|--|------------|
| 4.3 Conclusion | 104 |
| References..... | 105 |
| 5 Subsistence Needs and Individual Duties | 109 |
| 5.1 Who Has What Duties in Fulfilling Subsistence Needs?..... | 110 |
| 5.2 What Is the Status of Our Duties Concerning the Fulfillment of Subsistence Needs?..... | 115 |
| 5.3 Do Subsistence Needs Give Rise to a Human Right to Subsistence?..... | 129 |
| 5.4 Conclusion: The Mutual Dependence of Just Institutions and Virtue..... | 137 |
| References..... | 139 |
| 6 Duties to the Community and Civic Virtue | 143 |
| 6.1 An Instrumental Argument for Civic Duties: A Rebuttal of Two Counterarguments..... | 146 |
| 6.1.1 Two Problems with Limitless Freedom | 147 |
| 6.1.2 The Good of Civic Participation vs. Competitive Elitism | 150 |
| 6.2 The Importance of Civic Virtue | 155 |
| 6.2.1 The Problem of Strict Liberal Neutrality..... | 158 |
| 6.2.2 When Is It Legitimate for the State to Concern Itself with Its Citizens' Virtue?..... | 161 |
| 6.2.3 In What Manner May the State Cultivate Civic Virtue? | 165 |
| 6.3 Conclusion: Virtue as Complement to Justice | 169 |
| References..... | 171 |
| Conclusion | 175 |
| References..... | 180 |
| Index..... | 181 |