

CONTENTS

Preface	xvi
Acknowledgments	xx
About the Editors	xxi
Contributors	xxiii

SECTION I

Fundamental Principles for Effective Couple Therapy	1
1 The Heart and Soul of Couple Therapy Stephen T. Fife	3
Purpose: To highlight the foundations of successful clinical practice with couples and to provide a framework for the effective use of interventions in couple therapy
2 Joining: From the Perspective of the Use of Self Harry J. Aponte	11
Purpose: To gain the trust and partnership of the couple
3 The Road to Mastery: Three Steps for Improving Performance as a Couples Therapist Scott D. Miller and Mark A. Hubble	15
Purpose: To help practitioners improve engagement and outcomes in routine clinical practice

- 4 The Partners for Change Outcome Management System (PCOMS) 19
Barry Duncan and Jacqueline Sparks
Purpose: To give clients a voice and improve couple therapy outcomes
- 5 Ethical Techniques to Maintain Confidentiality in Couple Therapy 27
Gerald R. Weeks
Purpose: To maintain confidentiality in couple therapy in an ethical way

SECTION II 31

Techniques and Interventions

PART A

Enactments

- 6 Enactment: From the Perspective of the Use of Self 33
Harry J. Aponte
Purpose: To allow the therapist immediate access to the couple's dysfunctional relationship
- 7 Enactments in Five Developmental Stages 37
Sean D. Davis
Purpose: To help emotionally reactive couples communicate effectively
- 8 Effectively Structuring Enactments 41
Sean D. Davis and Sandra A. Espinoza
Purpose: To structure healthy couple communication in session

PART B

Couple Communication 45

- 9 Expanding Levels of Communication 47
Gerald R. Weeks and Nancy Gambescia
Purpose: To help couples learn how to communicate with depth and richness

- 10 Rule-Governed Speaker-Listener Technique 51
Rachel M. Diamond and Jay L. Lebow
 Purpose: To facilitate "good enough" coordination with minimum communication between divorcing couples
- 11 Problem-Solving Strategies Based on PREP 56
 (Prevention and Relationship Education Program)
Aleja M. Parsons, Lane L. Ritchie, and Howard J. Markman
 Purpose: To provide structure for couples to resolve problems peacefully
- 12 The Daily Dialogue 62
Jon Carlson and Sonya Lorelle
 Purpose: To increase awareness of what is on the individuals' minds to maintain a more constant connection between partners
- 13 Using Shared Journaling to Practice 66
 Communication Skills With Couples
Toni Schindler Zimmerman and Shelley A. Haddock
 Purpose: To help couples struggling to use communication skills at home that they learned in therapy
- 14 Soft/Hard/Soft Communication 69
Patricia L. Papernow
 Purpose: To provide a structure for couples to speak truth kindly and to say hard things in a way that they can be heard
- 15 Multidirectional Partiality 73
Janie K. Long and Daniel Kort
 Purpose: To validate the differing perspectives of each partner while modeling the capacity to understand and empathize with many types of experience, even those seemingly in conflict with one another

PART C

Reframing

77

- 16 Systemic Reframing 79
George M. Simon
 Purpose: To frame a couple's presenting problem in a systemic context

- 17 Taking Ownership 83
Jon Carlson and Sonya Lorelle
Purpose: To refocus a couple's attention on how they each are responsible for change rather than having a focus on blame
- 18 Reattribution 87
Norman B. Epstein
Purpose: To help partners consider alternative explanations for causes of each other's distressing actions
- 19 Clarifying the Negative Cycle in Emotionally Focused Couple Therapy (EFT) 92
Sue Johnson and Lorrie Brubacher
Purpose: To clarify a couple's negative cycle in order to shift partners from blaming each other to framing the cycle as a common enemy that blocks connection
- 20 Externalizing Conversations 97
Gene Combs and Jill Freedman
Purpose: To counter cultural practices and assumptions that see people as problematic
- 21 Re-Storying the Problem 101
Janie K. Long and Daniel Kort
Purpose: To develop alternative stories, offering couples different relationships to the problem so that they may feel empowered and successful
- 22 Reattribution and Narrative Change 105
Rachel M. Diamond and Jay L. Lebow
Purpose: To create new narratives that are less blaming and destructive for divorcing couples

PART D

Anger and Conflict

109

- 23 Anger Management Self-Talk
Norman B. Epstein

111

- Purpose: To reduce unregulated anger and aggressive behavior in couple relationships
- 24 Unbalancing 115
George M. Simon
- Purpose: To elicit an in-session enactment of productive conflict in conflict-avoidant couples
- 25 Confronting Splitting 119
Judith P. Siegel
- Purpose: To help partners regain emotional and cognitive balance when they are reacting to each other in polarized ways
- 26 Identifying and Working Through Projective Identifications 123
Judith P. Siegel
- Purpose: To help partners recognize when they are reenacting unfinished business from the past by projecting disowned parts of their self onto the other
- 27 Helping Partners Break Free of Adversarial Relationships: Transitioning From I-It to I-Thou 128
Stephen T. Fife
- Purpose: To help partners move from an adversarial stance toward each other to an affirming, collaborative stance by drawing upon Martin Buber's ideas regarding way of being and relationships
- 28 Tracking Protective Sequences in Internal Family Systems Therapy 133
Toni Herbine-Blank
- Purpose: To help couples understand the ways in which their vulnerable and protective parts contribute to patterns of conflict in their relationship
- 29 Empathic Joining 137
Patricia L. Papernow
- Purpose: To calm high-conflict interaction and help open pathways to understanding

PART E

Intimacy, Growth, and Change 143

- 30 Aspects of Intimacy 145
Stephen T. Fife
Purpose: To help couples create connection and maintain intimacy in their relationship
- 31 Intimacy and Sharing Hurts 151
Luciano L'Abate
Purpose: To deepen levels of intimacy through sharing hurts
- 32 Deepening Attachment Emotion in Emotionally Focused Couple Therapy (EFT) 155
Sue Johnson and Lorrie Brubacher
Purpose: To help partners access and express underlying attachment fears and needs
- 33 Asking About the Absent but Implicit in Narrative Therapy 161
Jill Freedman and Gene Combs
Purpose: To help members of a couple speak of what they treasure
- 34 What's Better?: Focusing on Positives 165
Sara Smock Jordan
Purpose: To co-construct solutions with couples by using solution focused brief therapy (SFBT) language
- 35 Scaling Questions With Couples 169
Sara Smock Jordan
Purpose: To measure goal progression with couples through the use of solution focused brief therapy (SFBT) scaling questions
- 36 Support Talk: Intervention for Enhancing Social Support Based on PREP (Prevention and Relationship Education Program) 173
Lane L. Ritchie, Aleja M. Parsons, and Howard J. Markman
Purpose: To help couples strengthen the positive aspects of their relationship

- 37 Hugging, Holding, Huddling, and Cuddling (3HC) 178
Luciano L'Abate
 Purpose: To help couples be emotionally and physically present through touch
- 38 "Your Cyberplace or Mine?": Electronic Fantasy Dates 182
Katherine M. Hertlein
 Purpose: To use technology to enhance intimacy in couple relationships
- 39 Forgiveness in Couples Therapy: Expanding Compassion, Responsibility, and Apology 186
Miyoung Yoon Hammer and Terry D. Hargrave
 Purpose: To help couples restore love and trust
- 40 Restoration of Relationships After Affairs 190
Terry D. Hargrave and Miyoung Yoon Hammer
 Purpose: To help couples recover after infidelity
- 41 Myths About Marriage 194
Jeffry H. Larson
 Purpose: To help couples identify myths about marriage that may lead to relationship distress
- 42 Developmental Tasks in the Critical First Year of Marriage: Clinical Guidelines 198
Jeffry H. Larson
 Purpose: To help recently married couples begin to complete "developmental tasks" that should be accomplished in the early year(s) of marriage to improve their chances of good marital adjustment and satisfaction
- 43 The Use of the Sexual Genogram 202
Nancy Gambescia
 Purpose: To help couples discuss sexual intimacy
- 44 A Systemic Approach to Sensate Focus 206
Gerald R. Weeks and Nancy Gambescia
 Purpose: To help couples reconnect physically and emotionally

PART F

Health and Wellness

211

- 45 A Biopsychosocial-Spiritual Assessment in Brief or Extended Couple Therapy Formats 213
Jennifer L. Hodgson, Angela L. Lamson, and Irina Kolobova
Purpose: To gather biopsychosocial-spiritual information for providing comprehensive care
- 46 Using the Wellness Wheel With Couples 218
Toni Schindler Zimmerman and Shelley A. Haddock
Purpose: To help couples identify strengths and areas for growth along eight dimensions of their relationship
- 47 Identifying and Reducing Stress That Influences
Relational Health 223
Angela L. Lamson, Jennifer L. Hodgson, and Amelia R. Muse
Purpose: To reduce indicators of stress in the context of couples' relational health
- 48 Psychoeducation on the Influence of Stress on Couples 227
Anne Milek and Guy Bodenmann
Purpose: To help couples be aware and identify the influence of external stressors
- 49 3-Phase Method of Dyadic Coping 231
Guy Bodenmann and Anne Milek
Purpose: To help couples cope with external stress together and prevent negative spillover effects

PART G

Intimate Partner Violence

237

- 50 Clinical Assessment Interview for Intimate Partner Violence 239
Douglas B. Smith and Jason B. Whiting
Purpose: To identify physical and psychological violence in couple relationships

- 51 "I Didn't Hurt You, but if I Did I Had a Good Reason!":
Denial and Distortion in Abusive Couples 243
Jason B. Whiting and Douglas B. Smith

Purpose: To help therapists reduce denial, blame, and distortion in high-conflict and violent couples

PART H

Addressing Childhood Sexual Abuse in Couple Therapy 249

- 52 Using Psychoeducation When Assessing and Treating the Effects of Childhood Sexual Abuse (CSA) in Couple Relationships 251
Colleen M. Peterson and Laura S. Smedley

Purpose: To provide psychoeducation to promote understanding, facilitate couple coping, and treat the effects of CSA where one partner is a CSA survivor

- 53 Promoting Healing of Childhood Sexual Abuse (CSA)
Survivors Within the Couple Relationship 256
Laura S. Smedley and Colleen M. Peterson

Purpose: To identify and facilitate relational behaviors that promote healing from childhood sexual abuse (CSA)