

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

1	Introduction	11
2	Transformation and public authorities	13
2.1	Economic policy – scientific theory or just applied economics	13
3	Transformation process and its methodology	18
4	Characteristics of the Czechoslovak economy during the late 1980s	21
4.1	External factors	21
4.2	Starting point of social changes	21
4.3	Starting point of the transformation in the CSFR (CR)	22
4.4	System background of the transformation	23
5	Selecting transformation strategy	26
5.1	Theoretical background of the transformation in the CSFR (CR)	28
5.2	Inspiration in Erhard's reforms	28
5.3	"Human capital" for managing the transformation process	31
6	Execution of the transformation process in the CSFR (CR)	34
6.1	Main pillars of the transformation process	34
6.2	Chronology of the transformation process in the CSFR (CR)	35
6.2.1	Pre-transformation period (1990)	35
6.2.2	Transformation stage no. 1 (1991–1995)	36
6.2.3	Transformation stage no. 2 (1996–2000)	38
6.2.4	Post-transformation period (2001 – today)	41
7	Fundamental pillars of the liberalization steps and the assessment thereof	42
7.1	Deregulation of internal and external conditions	42
7.2	Liberalization of prices	42
7.3	Liberalization of foreign trade relations	47
7.4	Formation and liberalization of the labor market	51
8	Privatization process – background of the privatization	53
8.1	Socialization of capital goods	53
8.2	Privatization process	54
8.3	Reasons for the privatization	55
8.4	Definition of the term privatization	56
8.5	Searching for a theoretical foundation for the transformation privatization	58
9	Process concerning changes of ownership relations in the CSFR (CR)	61
9.1	Transfer of property without consideration	61
9.1.1	Transformation of cooperative property	61
9.1.2	Transfers to municipalities	61
9.1.3	Restitutions and restitutions with additional purchasing	62

10	Small-scale privatization	63
10.1	Results of the small-scale privatization	64
11	Large-scale privatization	68
11.1	Standard privatization methods.....	68
11.1.1	Public auction (assets sale).....	68
11.1.2	Public tender (assets sale)	68
11.1.3	Direct sale of assets	69
11.1.4	Sale of shares.....	69
11.2	Nonstandard privatization method.....	70
11.2.1	Voucher privatization.....	70
11.2.2	Voucher privatization – failure or misunderstanding ?.....	70
11.2.3	First wave of the voucher privatization.....	71
11.2.4	Second wave of the voucher privatization	75
11.2.5	Assessment of the voucher privatization.....	77
12	Specifics of the banking sector privatization	86
12.1	Banking sector before the start of the transformation.....	86
12.2	Simplified description of banks' operations	86
12.3	Special case - formation, privatization and development of IB (IPB).....	87
12.3.1	Formation of IB	87
12.3.2	Privatization of IB	88
12.3.3	Development of IPB.....	90
12.4	Banking sector at the end of 1990s	93
12.4.1	General approaches to resolving problematic assets in banks' balance sheets	94
12.4.2	Transfer of problematic assets to a specialized institution.....	94
12.4.3	Retention of problematic assets in banks' balance sheets and subsequent solution.....	95
12.4.4	International experience	95
12.5	State support to Czech banks during the transformation process	96
12.5.1	Formation of IB – originally as a “trashcan”	96
12.5.2	Formation of KOB	97
12.5.3	Worsening credit situation of banks in 1990s	97
12.6	Government support to Czech banks in the second half of 1990s	98
12.6.1	Small banks	98
12.6.2	Large banks	98
12.6.3	Summary of state support granted to large banks	102
13	Privatization of the banking sector.....	105
14	Transformation costs	108

14.1	Specification of the transformation institutions.....	108
14.2	Net transformation costs (NTCI)	112
14.3	Total transformation costs (TTCI).....	112
14.4	Financial results of the transformation process only	114
15	Comprehensive macroeconomic assessment of the transformation.....	115
15.1	Source data.....	115
15.2	Assessment indicators (indices).....	117
16	Conclusion.....	122