Contents

List of Contributors page ix
Foreword xiii
András Sajó

1 Introduction: Speech and Society in Comparative Perspective 1
Monroe Price and Nicole Stremlau

PART I REVISITING INTERNATIONAL NORMS

2 Islam, Human Rights, and the New Information Technologies 19
Ali Allawi

3 Closure, Strategic Communications, and International Norms 41
Monroe Price

PART II DEWESTERNIZING TENDENCIES

4 Confucian Speech and Its Challenge to the Western Theory of Deliberative Democracy 59
Baogang He

5 From Gandhi to Modi: Institutions and Technologies of Speech and Symbolism in India 79
William Gould

6 The Making of a Media System in Uganda: A New Vision and a Revolutionary Origin 96
Nicole Stremlau

7 Neoliberal "Good Governance" in Lieu of Rights: Lee Kuan Yew's Singapore Experiment 114
Cherian George

8 Atatürk and Contemporary Speech Lessons from the Late Ottoman and Early Republican Era 131
Altug Akin

9 Jewish Law and Ethics in the Digital Era 150
Yoel Cohen

PART III THE WEST AS PROGENITOR AND MODIFIER OF CONCEPTS OF FREE EXPRESSION

10 Where Should Speech Be Free? Placing Liberal Theories of Free Speech in a Wider Context 171
Richard Danbury

11 The History, Philosophy, and Law of Free Expression in the United States: Implications for the Digital Age 192
Stephen M. Feldman

12 The Evolution of a Russian Concept of Free Speech 213
Elena Sherstoboeva

PART IV TECHNOLOGIES AND IDEOLOGIES IN TURBULENT TIMES

13 Free Speech, Traditional Values, and Hinduism in the Internet Age 237
Rohit Chopra

14 Cyber-Leninism: The Political Culture of the Chinese Internet 255
Rogier Creemers

15 French National Values, Paternalism, and the Evolution of Digital Media 274
Julien Mailland

16 Strategies and Tactics: Re-shaping the Internet in Ethiopia 293
Iginio Gagliardone

PART V CONCLUSION

17 Conclusion: Philosophies and Principles in Turbulent Times 317
Monroe Price and Nicole Stremlau

Index 325