

Contents

Part I Moral Theories Applied to Biomedicine

1	Ethical Theory and Moral Intuitions in Biomedical Decision-Making	3
	Robert Audi
2	Do Our Moral Judgements Need to Be Guided by Principles?	23
	Roberto Andorno
3	The Moral Philosophy of Genetic Counseling: Principles, Virtues and Utility Reconsidered.....	33
	Marta Soniewicka
4	A Bioethic of Communion: Beyond Care and the Four Principles with Regard to Reproduction	49
	Thaddeus Metz
5	Parents, Special Obligations and Reproductive Genetics	67
	Wojciech Lewandowski
6	Moral Virtue and the Principles of Practical Reason	81
	Adriana Warmbier
7	Context Counts – Bioethics in the Age of Globalization	93
	Aeddan Shaw
8	Conscientious Objection of Health Care Workers in the Context of Genetic Testing.....	103
	Jakub Pawlikowski
9	Are There Unresolvable Dilemmas in Bioethics?	117
	Barbara Chyrowicz

Part II The Moral, Legal and Social Challenges of Reproductive Genetics

10 Reproductive and Therapeutic Cloning.....	131
Henning Rosenau
11 Germline Gene Therapy in the Era of Precise Genome Editing: How Far Should We Go?	157
Peter Sýkora
12 Gene Editing in Human Embryos. A Comment on the Ethical Issues Involved	173
Iñigo De Miguel Beriain and Ana María Marcos del Cano
13 Geneticization and Bioethics: Ethical Dilemmas in Genetic Counselling	189
Ewa Baum and Jan Domaradzki
14 Technical and Ethical Limits in Prenatal and Preimplantation Genetic Diagnosis.....	205
Małgorzata Karbarz
15 From Informed Choice to Distributed Decision-Making: Ethnographic Tales from a Study on Prenatal Testing in Denmark.....	219
Nete Schwennesen
16 Legal and Cross-Cultural Issues Regarding the Termination of Pregnancy: African Perspectives ..	241
Sylvester C. Chima	