

Contents

INTRODUCTION	1
1 INDIAN-CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY AND THE DALITS	17
I A Working Definition of Theology: Constructive Proposals	19
II A Working Denouncement of Indian-Christian Theology: Deconstructive Propositions	35
III Towards a Dialogical and Inclusive Theological Project: Re-collection and Re-membering of Dalit Voices	43
2 THE PARAIYAR OF SOUTH INDIA: AN EXPOSITION OF SUBJUGATED HISTORICAL AND RELIGIOUS THEMES	58
I Dalit Historiography: Methodological Reflections	59
II History of the Paraiyar: An Overview from the Underside	64
III The Religion of the Paraiyar: Deities, Rituals and Religious Functionaries	71
3 THE RESISTIVE AND CONSTRUCTIVE IN PARAIYAR RELIGION: ELLAIYAMMAN AND THE DRUM AS SIGNIFIERS OF SUBALTERNITY	97
I Methodological Shrift	98
II Ellaiyamman as an Iconic Symbol of Collective Resistance and Emancipatory Mythography	100
III The Drum as a Dominant Aniconic Symbol of the Text of Resistance and Emancipatory Theography	109
IV The Dominant Symbols of the Paraiyar in Context	123

V	General Features of Subaltern Religion	125
4	DRUMMING UP REPRESENTATIONAL SPACE FOR SUBALTERN RELIGIOUS EXPRESSION IN INDIAN-CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY	140
I	The Drum as Thematized in Other Local Religious Traditions	142
II	The Drum as an Organizing Symbol of the Culture and Religion of Subaltern-based Orality	146
III	Stretching and Striking the Drum for Theology's Sake	157
5	CHRIST AS DRUM: FAITH IMAGINATIVELY AND DARINGLY SEEKING RESONANCE	179
I	Indian-Christian Theology and the Conception of Christ	181
II	Drum as Christ: The Expansive Pole of Christology	185
III	Christ as Drum: The Constrictive Pole of Christology	196
	Bibliography	218
	Index	238

Subject Index

- act of faith 179
- actuality, context-dependent 4
- advocacy affirming discourse 10
- agricultural, assets 69; labourers 69, 101; rest day 79
- Alvars 142; poetic devotion (Bhakti) of 143
- Ambedkar, B.R. 44, 55
- Andal, Tiruppavai 143
- aniconic forms of religiosity 137, n. 56
- anthropos 23
- Appasamy, A.J. 39
- Bhakti movement 143
- Bible 30; and resistive drum 152–3
- Black theology 51 n. 20
- border, Dalit habitation 3
- Brahmins 32; Indian-Christian theology and 37, 42, 68; –king relations, see tradition
- Brahmo Samaj 37; demand for National Christianity 37
- caste 45; breaching laws of 66; (and) control of resources 69; groups relation to totemic object 122; mindset (internalization) 56 n. 67; oppression 43; sanctions against Dalits commensality) 69, (sanskrit learning) 123, 137 n. 60, 164
- caste Hinduism, colonizing/ coopting tendencies of 3, 102–3, 122, 152, 192; Dalit contestation/ transformation of religions symbolism of 109, 134 n. 28, 126; degradation of drum as inauspicious by 165; disinterest in foreign culture 37; four-fold hierarchy in 35; hegemonic mythology of 3, 104; (and) Dalit inter-relatedness by rituals 193; male gods in 125; text-based theology of 156
- ceeri* (Paraiyar colony) 71
- Census, Dalit population in 64–5
- Chinglepet district 67
- Chirographic culture 155
- Christ/(Jesus), -centred humanism 189, 213 n. 25, 190; as deviant 6, 201–7; dominant community and 206; as drum 196–207; functionality of 5, 199; historical 31, 197, 214–15 n. 36; and Holy spirit 186; as immanent presence (God) in creation 187–9; Logos/drum (complementary) in interpreting 199–201; meaning of 180; mediation

- of redemptive design of God 186; of Nazareth 196; as normative in Christian theology 34, 182; ontology of 5, 199; open commensality of 217; paradigm of (in theology) 181; praxis of 6, 198; and reconciliatory emancipation 191–4; tragic/praxiological dimension of 187
- Christian Church 192; imperialistic attitude of 62
- Christian Dalits 204; aspirations in conversion 36, 44; disassociation from native tradition 12, 196; dual identity of 62, 138 n. 66; sacred geography of 61
- Christian Feminist theology 52, 141
- Christianity, culturally at home (India) 39; drum not legitimate symbol for 195–6; expansionism in western 38; high caste converts to 40; mass conversion, see sanskritization, 43–4, 92 n. 11, 12; three-fold conception of God in 185, 211
- Christic presence 183; in Paraiyar (independent of Jesus) 184; feminist objection to human gestalt of 211 n. 17
- christology 5; constrictive pole of 5, 183, 184–5; 196–207; constructive 183, 210 n. 10, 196; Dalit 5; expansive pole of 183, 184–5
- collectives, categories in 7; of orality 13
- colony devata, contractual relationship of 74; Ellaiyamman as 100
- colloquial word (myths) 104
- Communist Party (Italy) 41
- community, see subaltern, 3, 4; discontinuity in Dalit/Hindu 48 n. 1; in Indian theological context 20
- cultural–linguistic school 26; text-centredness and God in 27
- culture of literacy, see literacy, 5
- Dalit, see Paraiyar; religion; subaltern; alienation of 27, 55–6 n. 64; advocating liberation of 11, 47, 63, 208; as beef-eating community 118; christian interaction 53 n. 34; experience of 46–7; human communal identity and drum 46, 47, 67, 152, 190–1, 192; historiography 59–64; Jesus 30, 201; marginalization by Hindu human community 18, 67, 70, 101–3; non-textual religious reflectivity 22, 84; oppression of 67, 70, 94 n. 49, 101; passivity stereotype of 99, 109, 133 n. 18; subordination 7, 99
- Dasu 18
- dialectic between salvation/humanization 39
- dialogue as activity 19
- discourse of leaders/people 25, 51 n. 19
- ‘dividual-particle’ theory 66
- Divine (The) 19, 34; energetic drumming vs. still wisdom as worship of 125; human communication, dialectics of mystery/materiality 165; association of drum with 142,

- 145; relationality between humans and 28, 164, 165 dominant, class and dominated 42; group 7, 157; symbol 9, 15 n. 15; theology/culture 48 drum, as agent/mediation of Divine power/grace 3, 13, 109, 115, 124, 188; Christ/christic presence and symbol of 5, 184, 185–7, 202; as counter image to sacred word/literacy 3, 123, 124, 152, 166; as dominant aniconic symbol 10, 109–22; escorcizing demons by 117, 145, 166; hierarchy/types/beats of 110, 112–17; as historic/auspicious 119–121; low social status/pollution by beating of 67, 109, 112, 167, 192; as organizing symbol for orality 4, 9, 124, 146–57; priority/ complementarity to spoken/ written word 146; rejection and restoration of 12, 189; relatedness to other traditions (South Indian) 4, 141, 142–5, 146 (subaltern) 129; resistive and emancipatory characteristics of 3, 98, 109, 152, 165–7, 191; role in ritual communal life (Paraiyar) 112–17; as root symbol of religious particularity 3, 70, 109, 154; as symbol of suffering/cooping 5, 167–8, 191, 213 n. 28; as 'theological interpretant' 4, 9, 159 drum semiotic systems, Africa/ America 161, 177 n. 78; Korea/ Japan 178 n. 78 dynamics (of) class and caste 192–3; emancipatory resistance reconciliation 5, 6, 132 n. 16, 191–4; Paraiyar/Christian conceptual encounter 63; two-foldedness 147–8, 171–2 n. 16
 eclectism 5
 Ellaiyamman (goddess), see religion, 3, 10, 71; as boundary goddess 100–3 (geographic/ conceptual) 133 n. 18; as distinctive to Paraiyar religion 100; as dominant iconic symbol of resistance 10, 100–108, 122; etymology of 100, 131 n. 9; and Hindu hierarchy of dieties 3, 103, 107; origin mythology of 3, 81, 104–6
 emic/etic (Paraiyar/Christian relationship) 92 n. 16 ethnographic truths 63
 ethnographies, Dalit 71 ethnomusicology 161
 ethnosociology of caste theory 66–7 Fascism 6
 funeral(s), -drumming(Paraiyar) 116, 135 n. 40; and impurity 67–8; offerings to Arichandran in 116
 Gandhi, M.K. 49 n. 4
 Gangadhar, Pantawane 97
 God, (to) interpret indigenous 184; pain/suffering and revelation of 21, 46–7; -reflection, multimodal vs. text-dependent 28 goddesses, see Ellaiyamman, Mariyamman, concept of 'spousification' and 132 n. 16;

- differences between Hindu/Dalit 72, 95 n. 56; individuals possessed by 76, 82, 87–9; representations of 74–5; sacrifices for appeasement/energization of 78–9, 82, 89–90, 115–116
gospels 31
- Harijan 18, 49 n. 4
- hegemony/ic, Gramsci's interpretation of 41; nature of culture/discourse 26; tendency of theology 27; use of term 41
- Hindu, see caste, anthropology 66; order/purity/auspiciousness 66
- Hinduism, and dialogue with christianity 37; inconsonance of Dalit/culture/religion with 48 n. 1, 60, 67, 68; neo-/neo-Vedantism 37; oral/aural dimension to 152, 176 n. 68; popular 142
- historicization, creative/imaginative (Paraiyar) 104
- household god 73
- human being, culpability of 24; and culture 23
- human experience, normative 25; pre-linguistic forms of 25; and theological construction 25–7
- human identity of deviants 6
- humanization 39
- human rights 179
- immanental presence, god/christ 5, 184
- Indian-Christian theology 17–57; criticism of 12, 13; constructive theology and enrichment of, see liberation, 18, 19, 34, 48, 159, 198, 208 n. 1; as exclusionary of Dalit experience 2, 40, 156, 158, 182; (and) hegemonic, caste community objectives 2, 38, 182; and harmonization of Hindu/Christian theologies in 39, 42; inclusion of drum in 160–68; inclusion of Dalit in discourse 61; and nationalism 39; as text-centred 158
- Indian, (pan-) heritage 14 n. 3, 18; national self-awakening 37; rural society 70; writing 11, 212 n. 21
- Indian society 35; binary models in 36; Protestant Indian Christians in 87
- inequality 70
- Ingole, Shiva 122
- inscriptions 59, 90 n. 1
- International Missionary Conference 38, 39
- Isaiah 17
- Jesus as Christ, as image of God/human 182, 184
- jati*, difference between varna and 93; as determinant of social interaction 92 n. 17
- knowledge of God 46; memorization of conceptual 151, 174 n. 37; participatory or objective-distanced 154; subjugated 48
- language 58, 140; of cognition/emotion 147
- Lanjewar Jyoti 180
- Latin American theology 45
- leadership, in religion of ovality/literacy 156

- Liberation theology 48; constructive theology and 47; elements of culture/religion and 45–6; 'Liberationism' in 44–8; perspective of oppressed in 24–5, 183; methodological injunctions 10; use of goddess/drum symbols in 141
- Limbale, Sharankumar, 98
- literacy, see orality, non-verbal practices and resistance to 148, 149, 152; as sight-centred orientation 150
- Logos, drum as complementary function of 195; pre-existent Christ and notion of 212 n. 21; 213 n. 22; 194–5
- 'Low caste religion' 15 n. 9
- Madras Re-thinking Group 39
- Manu, Laws of 65
- marginalized 3, 70; cultural-linguistic framework and experience of 26; internalized religious world picture of 34; inconsonance in culture of 90, preferential status of 21
- Mariyamman (goddess) 71; origin myth 106, 134 n. 28
- Marxist, economism/scientism 41
- memory, open-ended collective (oral) 151; tests for literates/non-literates 151
- metaphysics, trans-cultural/historic 213 n. 22
- Mizo, oral tradition of 13
- multimodalities, of constructions of world 147, 171 n. 13; of intelligence 147, 171 n. 12; in religion (orality/literacy) 148, 172 n. 19
- myths/mythographies, counter-hegemonic 108, 132 n. 17; emancipatory 104, 134 n. 28, 152; of Paraiyar drumming profession 120–21; transposition of heads in 106; of untouchable's origin 134 n. 26; valorization through remythologization 107
- Narayana Guru 144; on primeval character of religious drumming 144, 170 n. 7; rights of Dalits 144
- Nataraja Guru 144
- nationalism (Indian) and unitary theological vision 39, 42
- Native American Tribes 13
- New Testament 197
- Nicodemus 30
- orality (culture of) 4, 5; absence of abstraction/logical reasoning in 153; dimensions of (in Paraiyar religion) 149; elasticity in divide between literacy and 149, 173 n. 25; myths in tradition of 104; verbomotor alliance in 148
- organizing symbol/metaphor (drum) 170–71 n. 11
- original inhabitants 3; Dravida theory and Paraiyar or 68
- Other Backward Classes 60
- outcastes 2, 60; mixed-caste marriages and 66

- pain and sorrow, songs of 58; unutterable 164
- parai (cow-skin) drum 67, 110; and dead cow association 118, 136 n. 53; paradigmatic symbol of prestige and debasement 118–19; as symbol of Divine favour to Alvars 143
- Paraiyar of Sri Lanka 111
- Paraiyar (of Tamil Nadu) 2, 10; ceremonies for female 77–8, 114; creative historicity of 104, 132 n. 18; dietary regulations of 87; distinct religious space of 41, 70; diverse religious leadership of 163; etymology of 121; experience of christic mystery 197; female Sakti worship 125; origins of 2, 65–71; as priests of the drum 122; puja by 75–6; religious resources of 2, 108; –women's experience 91 n. 5, 141; self-reflexivity of 99, 132 n. 18
- Parasuraman, inauspicious mixed unions and 122, 132 n. 22
- Pariah 1, 14
- patriarchal 141
- patrilineage, deities (kula devam) 73–4
- plurality in multiform religious reflection 22
- polluted space 6
- pollution/purity, Brahmanical culture and 68, 136 n. 44; of drum/death 67, 167; gospels and Paraiyar experience of 216 n. 53; immanence in place of 207
- Pongal 80
- power, caste Hindu/Paraiyar, divine 107–108
- Protestant theology 35
- Ramanuja, 142, 170 n. 2
- Ram Mohan Roy 37
- reality, participation vs. causality orientation to 147; plasticity of 50 n. 14
- religion, as cultural system 51 n. 14; influence of music in development of 161; independence from elite of material-production of 126; particularistic-oral/universalistic-literate 154; -making 11; non-text/ word resources of 163; as 'weapons of the weak' 125
- religion (of Paraiyar), see drum, subaltern religion aggregative method in 104, 152, 174 n. 44; asexuality of Dalit goddesses 72; deities in 71–5, 100; distinctiveness of 3, 100; Divine/Christ way of suffering in 12, 45, 165, 194; drum as text of theography of 3; functionaries in religious activities of 84–90; paradox of mystery/materiality in 168; as replication of caste Hinduism 99, 104, 106–7; resurrecting 47, 199; rituals/ rites in 75–80; yearly festival of 80–84
- religious representation, of dominant-funded literacy/ word 141, (reasoning exclusion) 151; of subaltern-based orality/ drum 141, (flexible absorption in myths) 131–2; two fold nature of 147, 171 n. 14 remembrance, see memory, 48, 57

 n. 73, 104; remembered religious world in 2
 revelation, as imaginative construction 23 ritual life 9
 sacrifices bloody 83
 Samaritan 30
 Sanskrit 123, 137 n. 60, 187
 Sanskritization 43; aversion of 48;
 caste Hindu theology and 44 Sakti, female manifestations in worship of 71; relationship between drum and 145
 Scheduled Castes 18, 36
 scriptures 29; Dalit and oral 30– 31; reconciling meaning of Hindu/christian 38
 sound, religious/cultural communication and 141
 South Indian Society, codification of history by elite in 59; cooperative dynamic of right/left caster in 69–70; literature in 59;
 three-fold caste hierarchy in 35
 Soviet Union, situational thinking culture of 153
 space, Dalit/caste community Living 188
 subaltern 6, 7, 8
 subaltern-based orality 4, 149, 158; organic productive character of 155, 160; as sound-centred (collaborative behaviour in) 154–7, (situational orientation in) 153–4, (uniting collective of) 150–51; and use of senses 150

Subaltern Collective 6, 15; object of rewriting history by 61 subaltern community/ies collective agency and symbolic order 126; counter-hegemonic procedures of 42, 47, 104, 126, 166;
 empowerment of collective subjectivity of 3, 47, 190; exploitation of 41; hybridization in domination/subjection ethos 129–30, 127, 167; reconciliatory/liberative attempts 167, 191; subjugated knowledge of 2, 11

Subaltern religion, dominant and 4, 125, 126, 127, 188; false consciousness in 4, 125;
 religious subjectivity of outcas-tes 110, 125; suffering and locus of Human-Divine 8, 194;
 symbolic resources of 11, 125
 (functionality) 128

Sudra, caste hierarchy and 91 n.
 6; sanctions against 123, 137
 n. 59; theology 45, 144

symbol, drum as 9; as multimodel 10; as multivocal 9; notion of 8–9; in relation to sign 8, 9

Tamil Nadu, sangam age of 119

Tamil, transliteration of 10, 15 n.
 20 temples, domain of twice-born 60 temple-car 83

text, critique of 160; formed thought 153; night reading of 152

theographia 23, 50 n. 11 theologians, advocacy function of (marginalized) 21, 26, 181;

- balance between roles of community and 25; Dalit 40, 45, 56 n. 71; pioneering Indian 37; working of 24
- theology, Christ symbol's role, construction in 209 n. 1; contextual 158, 176 n. 67; Constructive 19, 49 n. 5; 23–31, 162, 197; critical dimensions of 20; definition of 19, 157; as dialogical, communal symbolic interaction 19–23, 47, 57 n. 72; as facilitating collective living under Divine 180; and human situatedness 10, 153; liberative, dialogical dimensions of 2, 4–5; and lived community 25 (as praxis) 47; subaltern community and Indian 21, 162–8; reconstruction in 12
- tradition(s), Christian South Indian 29; dominant culture and selective 43; great and little 53 n. 29; importance to theology of 28; king/priest alliance in 59, 90 n. 4; post-modernism and 29
- tribals, sacred importance of drum in 145
- udakkai drum 81, 135 n. 43; and communication with Deity 86
- untouchables 2, 7, 18, 65; and pollution of dead cow 67, 94 n. 36
- uur (Hindu village), ceeri and seamless fluidity of 102–103
- Vaisnava community 143
- Valhivar priest 81, 85–7; status vis-à-vis Paraiyar 85
- varnas* 32
- Vettiyan (sacrificer) 89–90
- Vedas* 32; as norm of Hindu orthodoxy 152
- Vilification 142
- village religion (Paraiyar), -caste deity/God 74; Western morality's view of 62–3
- Western 156; emphasis on rationality 195; notion of individual 66; theory 10
- Wisdom of Solomon 17
- Word, dominant situated literacy and 4; drum as preceding 144, 153; Hindu conception of 3; sacred 123, 195
- writing 156; people differentiated by technology of 172 n. 19; and decontextualization 154
- Yahweh, spirit of 195, 199