

Contents

List of Figures	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction: Žižek and Media Studies, Beyond Lacan—Matthew Flisfeder and Louis-Paul Willis	1
Part I Media, Ideology, and Politics
1 Žižek's Reception: Fifty Shades of Gray Ideology—Paul A. Taylor	15
2 The Sublime Absolute: Althusser, Žižek, and the Critique of Ideology—Agon Hamza	27
3 Student Fantasies: A Žižekian Perspective on the 2012 Quebec Student Uprising—Louis-Paul Willis	39
4 The Objective : The Configuration of Trauma in the “War on Terror,” or the Sublime Object of the Medium—Richard Bégin	53
Part II Popular Culture
5 The Priority of the Example: Speculative Identity in Film Studies—Todd McGowan	67
6 Imagining the End Times: Ideology, the Contemporary Disaster Movie, Contagion —Matthew Beaumont	79
7 Žižek and the 80s Movie Song: “There Is a Non-Relationship”—Graham Wolfe	91
8 A Little Piece of the Reel: Record Production and the Surplus of Prosthetic Vocality—Mickey Vallee	103
9 White Elephants and Dark Matter(s): Watching the World Cup with Slavoj Žižek—Tim Walters	115

Part III Film and Cinema

- 10 Contingent Encounters and Retroactive Signification:
Zooming in on the Dialectical Core of Žižek's Film
Criticism—Fabio Vighi 131
- 11 How to Kill Your Mother: Heavenly Creatures, Desire, and Žižek's Return to Ideology—Cindy Zeiher 149
- 12 Dialogue with American Skepticism: Cavell and Žižek
on Sexual Difference—Keiko Ogata 161
- 13 From Interpassive to Interactive Cinema: A Genealogy of the Moving Image of Cynicism—Tamas Nagypal 173
- 14 Beyond the Beyond: CGI and the Anxiety of Overperfection—Hugh S. Manon 185

Part IV Social Media and the Internet

- 15 Slavoj Žižek as Internet Philosopher—Clint Burnham 201
- 16 The Real Internet—Jodi Dean 211
- 17 Enjoying Social Media—Matthew Flisfeder 229
- 18 Is Torture Part of Your Social Network?—Tara Atluri 241

Appendix Art

- Staging Feminine Hysteria: Schoenberg's Erwartung—Slavoj Žižek 257

Bibliography 277

Notes on Contributors 289

Index 293