

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Preface | vii |
| 1 Should the History of Geography be X-Rated? Telling Geography's Story | 1 |
| 2 Of Myths and Maps Geography in the Age of Reconnaissance | 32 |
| 3 Revolution, Celestial and Terrestrial Geography and the Scientific Revolution | 63 |
| 4 Naturalists and Navigators Geography in the Enlightenment | 102 |
| 5 Of Design and Dining Clubs Pre-Darwinian Geography | 139 |
| 6 The Geographical Experiment Evolution and the Founding of a Discipline | 177 |
| 7 A 'Sternly Practical' Pursuit Geography, Race and Empire | 216 |
| 8 The Regionalizing Ritual Geography, Place and Particularity | 260 |
| 9 Statistics Don't Bleed Quantification and its Detractors | 304 |
| 10 The Geographical Tradition A Conversational Conclusion | 347 |
| Bibliography | 359 |
| Index | 411 |