

Contents

List of Figures and Tables . . . . . xi

Contributors . . . . . xv

Preface . . . . . xxi

Acknowledgments . . . . . xxv

Part I      Setting the Context of Theories of Aging . . . . . 1

Chapter 1    Theories About Age and Aging . . . . . 3
Vern L. Bengtson, Daphna Gans, Norella M. Putney, and Merrill Silverstein

Chapter 2    A Metahistorical Perspective on Theories of Aging . . . . . 25
W. Andrew Achenbaum

Chapter 3    An Evolutionary Theory of Human Life Span: Embodied
Capital and the Human Adaptive Complex. . . . . 39
Hillard Kaplan, Michael Gurven, and Jeffrey Winking

Part II      Theorizing Aging Across Disciplines. . . . . 61

Chapter 4    Biodemography: Integrating Disciplines to Explain Aging . . . . 63
Sarinnapha Vasunilashorn and Eileen M. Crimmins

Chapter 5    Problematic Foundations: Theorizing Time, Age, and Aging . . 87
Jan Baars

Chapter 6    Deriving a Sense of Meaning in Late Life: An Overlooked
Forum for the Development of Interdisciplinary Theory. . . . . 101
Neal Krause

Chapter 7    Understanding Healthy Aging: Key Components and Their Integration . . . . . 117
Carol D. Ryff and Burton Singer

Part III	Biological Theories of Aging .....	145
Chapter 8	Making Sense of Biological Theories of Aging .....	147
	Steven N. Austad
Chapter 9	The Immunological Theory of Aging Revisited .....	163
	Rita B. Effros
Chapter 10	Modalities of Gene Action Predicted by the Classical Evolutionary Theory of Aging .....	179
	George M. Martin
Chapter 11	Contribution of a Mouse Model System to Neuroscientific Theories of Learning, Memory, and Aging .....	193
	Diana S. Woodruff-Pak, Michael R. Foy, and Richard F. Thompson
Chapter 12	Programmed Longevity and Programmed Aging Theories . . .	215
	Stavros Gonidakis and Valter D. Longo
Chapter 13	Free Radicals and Oxidative Stress in Aging .....	229
	Reshma Shringarpure and Kelvin J. A. Davies
Part IV	Psychological Theories of Aging .....	245
Chapter 14	Convoys of Social Relations: An Interdisciplinary Approach . . .	247
	Toni C. Antonucci, Kira S. Birditt, and Hiroko Akiyama
Chapter 15	Theoretical Perspectives on Social Context, Cognition, and Aging .....	261
	Fredda Blanchard-Fields and Antje Kalinauskas
Chapter 16	Dynamic Integration Theory: Emotion, Cognition, and Equilibrium in Later Life .....	277
	Gisela Labouvie-Vief
Chapter 17	Cognitive Plasticity .....	295
	Sherry L. Willis, K. Warner Schaie, and Mike Martin
Chapter 18	The Role of Cognitive Control in Older Adults' Emotional Well-Being .....	323
	Nichole Kryla-Lighthall and Mara Mather

Part V	Social Science Perspectives on Theories of Aging . . .	345
Chapter 19	Toward an Integrative Theory of Social Gerontology . . . . . Scott A. Bass	347
Chapter 20	Toward a Phenomenology of Aging . . . . . Charles F. Longino Jr. and Jason L. Powell	375
Chapter 21	Theorizing the Life Course: New Twists in the Paths . . . . . Dale Dannefer and Jessica A. Kelley-Moore	389
Chapter 22	Cumulative Inequality Theory for Research on Aging and the Life Course . . . . . Kenneth F. Ferraro, Tetyana Pylypiv Shippee, and Markus H. Schafer	413
Chapter 23	Theorizing Lifestyle: Exploring Agency and Structure in the Life Course . . . . . Jon Hendricks and Laurie Russell Hatch	435
Chapter 24	The New Terrain of Old Age: Hallmarks, Freedoms, and Risks . . . . . Richard A. Settersten Jr. and Molly E. Trauten	455
Chapter 25	Theorizing Feminist Gerontology, Sexuality, and Beyond: An Intersectional Approach . . . . . Toni Calasanti	471
Chapter 26	Theorizing Across Cultures . . . . . Peggye Dilworth-Anderson and Monique D. Cohen	487
Chapter 27	Out of the Armchair and Off the Veranda: Anthropological Theories and the Experiences of Aging . . . . . Christine L. Fry	499
Chapter 28	Theorizing About Families and Aging From a Feminist Perspective . . . . . Katherine R. Allen and Alexis J. Walker	517
Part VI	Society, Public Policy, and Theories of Aging . . . . .	529
Chapter 29	From Industrialization to Institutionalism: Theoretical Accounts of Aging Policy Development in the United States . . . . . Robert B. Hudson	531

Chapter 30	The Political Economy Perspective of Aging . . . . .	555
	Ben Lennox Kail, Jill Quadagno, and Jennifer Reid Keene
Chapter 31	Theory Informing Public Policy: The Life Course Perspective as a Policy Tool . . . . .	573
	Victor W. Marshall
Chapter 32	Aging and Social Policy: Theorizing the Social . . . . .	595
	Alan Walker
Chapter 33	Reconstructing Theories of Aging: The Impact of Globalization on Critical Gerontology . . . . .	615
	Chris Phillipson
Chapter 34	Care for Older Adults in the Welfare State: Theories, Policies, and Realities . . . . .	629
	Mats Thorslund and Merril Silverstein
Part VII	Translating Theories of Aging . . . . .	641
Chapter 35	Jurisprudential Gerontology: Theorizing the Relationships Between Law and Aging . . . . .	643
	Israel Doron
Chapter 36	Spirituality, Finitude, and Theories of the Life Span . . . . .	659
	Malcolm L. Johnson
Chapter 37	A Good Old Age: Theories of Mental Health and Aging . . . . .	675
	Steven H. Zarit
Chapter 38	Translational Theory: A Wisdom-Based Model for Psychological Interventions to Enhance Well-Being in Later Life . . . . .	693
	Bob G. Knight and Ken Laidlaw
Chapter 39	The Construction of Knowledge: A New Gerontological Education Paradigm . . . . .	707
	Ariela Lowenstein and Sara Carmel
Part VIII	The Future of Theories of Aging . . . . .	721
Chapter 40	The Future of Theories of Aging . . . . .	723
	Daphna Gans, Norella M. Putney, Vern L. Bengtson, and Merril Silverstein
Author Index	. . . . .	739
Subject Index	. . . . .	769

List of Figures and Tables

Chapter 3

Figure 3.1	Effects of natural selection on organ condition and age schedules of mortality and reproduction . . . . .	41
Figure 3.2	Net food production and survival: Human foragers and chimpanzees . . . . .	48
Figure 3.3	Cumulative expected net caloric production by age: Humans and chimpanzees . . . . .	50
Figure 3.4	Age-specific life expectancy among foragers and chimpanzees . . . . .	51
Figure 3.5	Modal ages of adult death . . . . .	52
Figure 3.6	Age-specific dependency and adult mortality . . . . .	54
Figure 3.7	Modernization effects on life span . . . . .	55
Table 3.1	Modal Ages of Adult Death. . . . .	53

Chapter 4

Figure 4.1	Biopsychosocial model of health outcomes. . . . .	71
------------	---	----

Chapter 8

Figure 8.1	Record longevities for 623 mammal species. . . . .	157
------------	--	-----

Chapter 10

Figure 10.1	Theodosius Dobzhansky with Howard Levine. . . . .	180
-------------	---	-----

Chapter 11

Figure 11.1	A putative eyeblink conditioning circuit . . . . .	197
Figure 11.2	CR percentage acquired by mice. . . . .	199
Figure 11.3	Unbiased estimation of cerebellar Purkinje cell number in 4- to 24-month-old C57BL/6 mice using the optical fractionator. . . . .	203
Figure 11.4	Artificial cerebrospinal fluid (aCSF) in adult rats. . . . .	205
Figure 11.5	Artificial cerebrospinal fluid (aCSF) in aged rats. . . . .	206

Figure 11.6	The stress effect on LTD .....	207
Table 11.1	Estimates of Whole-Cerebellum Purkinje Cell Number in C57BL/6 Mice .....	203
 Chapter 12
Figure 12.1	The age-dependent decline in reproductive probability and hence in the force of natural selection .....	216
Figure 12.2	Regrowth of mutants .....	225
Figure 12.3	Survival of a wild-type yeast strain maintained in nutrient medium or in sterile water .....	226
 Chapter 14
Figure 14.1	Modified convoy model including stress .....	257
Figure 14.2	Illustrative longitudinal convoy model with mediating effect of self-efficacy .....	258
 Chapter 15
Figure 15.1	A theoretical model for judgments in social context .....	270
 Chapter 18
Figure 18.1	Memory and attention in older adults versus younger adults .....	331
Figure 18.2	Cognitive control is required to implement older adults' chronically activated emotional goals .....	337
 Chapter 19
Figure 19.1	An integrated theory of social gerontology .....	362
Table 19.1	Examples of Items Found in Figure 19.1 .....	365
 Chapter 21
Figure 21.1	Framework for classifying life course studies by outcome of interest and type of explanation .....	398
Figure 21.2	Subclassification of explanations for life course outcomes .....	399
 Chapter 22
Figure 22.1	Illustration of disability pathways affected by the onset and duration of resource mobilization .....	425
Table 22.1	Relationships Between Axioms and Propositions of Cumulative Inequality Theory and Other Theories or Perspectives .....	419

Chapter 27

Table 27.1      Classification of Life Courses Based on Measurement of Age and the Requirement That Age Be Known by an Individual or Not ..... 505

Chapter 29

Table 29.1      Gross Public Social Expenditure as a Percentage of Gross
                    Domestic Product, 2003 ..... 544

Table 29.2      Relative Poverty Rates: Percentage Below 50% Median Adjusted Income, Overall and for Elders ..... 549

Chapter 32

Figure 32.1      Reciprocity between two basic tensions. .... 607

Figure 32.2      The constitutional factors of social quality ..... 609

Chapter 35

Figure 35.1      The elder law multidimensional model ..... 651

Chapter 39

Figure 39.1      Analytic framework for assessing the development of gerontology as a discipline ..... 710

Figure 39.2a      Relationships between the demographic revolution, the aging enterprise, and the technological and information revolutions. .... 712

Figure 39.2b      A six-foci model ..... 712

Table 39.1      Linkages Between the Structural Components of the Demographic Revolution, the Aging Enterprise, and the Technological and Information Revolutions and Their Interrelated Processes: Examples of Future Directions for the Discipline of Gerontology ..... 713