

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements .....	1
Prologue .....	ix
Part I Identifying and Weighing the Errors in the Prosecution of Crimes .....	1
Chapter 1 Posing the Problem: A Brief Primer on Violent Crimes, their Perpetrators and their Victims .....	3
Chapter 2 The Social Contract: Managing Crime and Protecting the Innocent from False Conviction.....	18
Chapter 3 False Outcomes and the Social Contract .....	46
Chapter 4 How and Why the Current Rate of False Negatives Produces Much Greater Risk of Harm for Innocent Citizens than False Positives Do .....	67
Part II A Pair of Solutions.....	87
Chapter 5 Solution (A): The Case for Adjusting the Standard of Proof.....	88
Chapter 6 Searching for a Solution (B): Burden-Warping and the Skewing of Errors in the Defendant's Favor .....	110
Chapter 7 The Ways Double Jeopardy Undermines Legal Inquiry: Jumping on the Anglo-Saxon Bandwagon.....	138
Part III Error Management beyond the Trial or Plea .....	151
Chapter 8 Additional Court-Related Sources of Reducible Harm: Bail, Sentences, Probation and Parole .....	153
Chapter 9 Where Do We Go from Here? How to Turn a Criminal Proceeding into a Genuine, Truth-Seeking and Harm-Reducing Instrument of Inquiry .....	173

NOTES.....	181
INDEX.....	203

Tables and Figures

Table 1. The Shrunken Role of Trials by Jury	9
Table 2. Serious Crimes Leading to Convictions	22
Figure 1. Crime and Punishment, 1950-98	33
Figure 2. Murder and Expected Prison Time	35
Figure 3. Shifting Rape Rates	36
Table 3. Prior Offenses of Violent Offenders, 2009	41
Table 4. Violent Crimes, US, 2008	48
Figure 4. Disposition of Violence Cases	49
Figure 5. Verdicts and Errors in Violent Cases	65
Table 5. Self-Reported Recidivism of Serial Felons	71
Table 6. Estimates pertinent to the Social Contract	79
Figure 6. Harms Resulting from Erroneous Verdicts	81
Table 7. Errors in the Handling of Violent Crimes	82
Figure 7. Violent Crimes 'Cleared' by Arrest	83
Figure 8. Apparent Guilt of the Guilty & the Innocent	100
Figure 9. Error Victims	101
Figure 10. Distribution of Apparent Guilt	102
Table 8. Violent Harms Annually Produced	104
Table 9. Defendant Testimony Practices	129
Table 10. Bailees and Fugitives, 2008	158
Table 11. Bail and Recidivism	158
Table 12. Falsity-in-Sentencing	161
Table 13. Prison Time of Violent Offenders	162
Table 14. The Convicted on Probation	166
Table 15. A Comparative Look at Violent Crime	170
Figure 11. The Convicted U.S. Population	171