

Contents

Part 1 The basics

1	How children learn languages	7
	Mother tongue acquisition	7
	Bilingualism and multilingualism	9
	Learning a foreign language at school	12
2	Foreign language learning in European primary schools	16
	The period 1950–75	16
	The British pilot scheme 'French from eight'	17
	The beginnings of early foreign language learning in France	17
	The lessons of the past	19
	The revival of teaching languages in European primary schools in the nineties	20
3	The aims of early learning of English	23
	Why teach a foreign language in primary school?	23
	English as a foreign language in Europe	24
	Learning to learn English as a foreign language	26
4	English and the primary curriculum	35
	Why make links between English teaching and the primary curriculum?	35
	What kinds of learning take place in the primary curriculum?	38
	How can ELT draw upon the primary curriculum?	40
	Linking ELT and the curriculum: topics, stories and investigations	42

CONTENTS

5 Early learning of English in preparation for secondary school	47
From primary school to secondary school	47
Ability to communicate in a foreign language	49
Discovering another culture	50
Reflecting on language	51
Quality rather than quantity of learning	52

Part 2 Teaching language learning skills

6 The spoken word	56
Learning to listen in English	56
Learning to speak in English	59
7 The written word	72
Learning to read in English	72
Learning to write in English	76
8 Sounds, words and structures	85
Learning the pronunciation of English	85
Learning English vocabulary	89
Learning English grammar	95
9 Learning to learn	101
The content of learning to learn	101
The benefits of learning to learn	102
The methodology of learning to learn	102
The teacher's role	102
Metacognitive strategies	103
Cognitive strategies	110
Social mediation strategies	111

Part 3 The teacher's role

10	Selecting materials	113
	Aims and objectives	113
	Methodology	114
	Choosing a coursebook	114
	Choosing supplementary materials	118
	Producing your own materials	119
11	Classroom management	129
	Teaching skills	129
	The pupils' learning environment	135
	Organizing the classroom	138
12	Lesson planning	147
	Before the lesson	147
	Procedures	152
	After the lesson	156
13	Using storybooks	158
	Why use storybooks?	158
	Selecting storybooks	159
	Using storybooks – a methodology	160
	Storytelling techniques	164
	Evaluating your storytelling techniques	166
	Organizing a book corner	168
14	Using games, songs and rhymes	174
	Why use games, songs and rhymes?	174
	Action songs and rhymes	175
	Limericks, humorous verse and riddles	177
	Traditional and pop songs	177
	How to use songs and rhymes	178
	Integrating songs with other activities	180
	Games	180

Part 4 Brushing up your English

15 Self-assessment	185
English for general purposes	186
English in the classroom	188
16 Improving your language skills	192
The good language learner	192
Resources for learning English	193
Listening	195
Speaking	202
Reading	204
Writing	208
17 English in the classroom	213
The main functions of communication in English	214
English for various classroom occasions and activities	216
Which metalanguage to use?	219
Ensuring the authenticity of the English	221
Some traps in the pronunciation of English	224
Appendix	229