

Table of Contents

1. OCCUPATIONAL STRUCTURE AND MOBILITY PROCESS	1
Stratification Theory and Mobility Research	2
Method of Data Collection	10
Organization of the Book	19
2. THE OCCUPATIONAL STRUCTURE I: PATTERNS OF MOVEMENT	23
The Flow of Manpower	26
Supply and Recruitment from One Generation to the Next	38
The Significance of Career Beginnings	48
Mobility and Class Boundaries	58
Dimensions of Social Distance	67
Conclusions	76
3. THE OCCUPATIONAL STRUCTURE II: HISTORICAL TRENDS	81
Cohorts versus Generations	82
Mobility Trends	90
Direct Comparisons between Years	97
Indirect Inferences	105
Intercohort Comparisons in Mobility to First Job	107
Net Impressions	111
4. ASCRIBED AND ACHIEVED STATUS: TECHNIQUES OF MEASUREMENT AND ANALYSIS	115
Measuring the Status of Occupations	117
Multiple-Classification Analysis	128
Illustration of Multiple-Classification Analysis	132
Regression Analysis	140
Covariance Analysis	147
Analyzing Mobility Distributions: The Case of Education	152
5. THE PROCESS OF STRATIFICATION	163
A Basic Model	165
Path Coefficients	171

Age Groups: The Life Cycle of a Synthetic Cohort
 Conjectures and Anticipations
Issues Posed by Mobility Variables
 The Concept of a Vicious Circle

6. INEQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY

Negroes and Whites
 Southerners and Northerners
 The Negro in the South and in the North
 Immigration
 National Origins
 Conclusions

7. GEOGRAPHICAL AND SOCIAL MOBILITY

Community Size and Occupational Conditions
 Geographic Motility
 The Significance of Migration
 Opportunity Structure and Migration Process
 The Dynamics of Social and Spatial Movements
 Conclusions: Migration and Universalism

8. FARM BACKGROUND AND OCCUPATIONAL ACHIEVEMENT

Migration from Farms
 Distribution of Men with Farm Background
 Farm Background and the Process of Stratification
 Occupational Differentials by Size of Community

9. KINSHIP AND CAREERS

Size of Parental Family
 Sibling Position
 The Structure of Family Relations
 Family Climate and Achievement
 Formalization of Interpretations
 Conclusions

10. MARRIAGE AND OCCUPATIONAL STATUS

Broken Families
 Marital Status as a Career Contingency
 Making a Good Match
 Assortative Mating
 Educational Homogamy
 Conclusions

11. DIFFERENTIAL FERTILITY AND OCCUPATIONAL MOBILITY	361
Historical Background	361
The Mobility Hypothesis	367
Fertility in Relation to Intragenerational Mobility	371
Fertility in Relation to Intergenerational Mobility	381
Conditions Modifying Occupational Differentials in Fertility	389
Alternative Perspective	392
12. OCCUPATIONAL STRUCTURE AND STRATIFICATION SYSTEM	401
Conditions of Occupational Success	401
Family and Occupational Life	410
Occupational Structure and Historical Trends	418
Causes of Social Mobility in Contemporary Society	425
Opportunity and Democracy	432
Functions of Mobility Research	441

APPENDICES

A. Bibliography of Official Government Publications Relating to the Population Covered in OCG	443
B. Questionnaire for Occupational Changes in a Generation	445
C. Notes on Coverage of OCG Tabulations and Comparability with Other Sources	451
D. Chicago Pretest Matching Study	457
E. Census Checks on Retrospective Data	463
F. Effect of Nonresponse on Correlation Results	471
G. Estimated Standard Errors of Percentages in OCG Data	477
H. Summary of Results of Multiple-Classification Analysis	479
I. Migration Classification	491
J. Additional Tables	495

INDEX