

The Key English Test (KET) Testbuilder provides students with the information, advice and practice they need to pass KET. It offers teachers and students an encouraging and accessible way to prepare for the exam and may be used as part of an English language course or as a self-access programme for students preparing for the exam on their own.

There are four complete practice tests that reflect the content and level of the actual examination. All the tests are of a similar standard and include the themes, topics and vocabulary specified in the KET syllabus.

The Key English Test consists of 3 papers: Reading and Writing (9 parts); Listening (5 parts) and Speaking (2 parts). For further detail on the content of these papers, see the shaded Further Practice sections listed below.
