Introduction: Why Governance Networks?	xxiii
About the Authors	xxxv
1 The Emergence of Governance Networks: Historical Context, Contemporary Trends, and Considerations	1
Networks as an Inherent Property of the U.S. Government.....	2
Federalism	7
Networks as an Inherent Property of Intersector Relations in the United States	9
Government-Nonprofit Relations	10
Government-Corporation Relations	12
Contemporary Trends Shaping Innovation in Governance Networks.....	14
The Persistence of Wicked Problems	14
The Move to Devolve.....	16
The Move to Privatize.....	17
The Move to Partner.....	20
The Move to Regulate and Nationalize.....	22
Types of Networks Arising out of These Trends.....	22
The Stakes: Withering State or Democratic Anchorage?.....	24
Descriptive Considerations	28
Administrative Considerations.....	31
Accountability Considerations.....	35
Performance Considerations	37
2 Defining the Governance Network	41
Fundamentals of Social Network Analysis.....	42
The Place of Interorganizational Networks in Public Administration, Policy, and Governance Studies	44

	The Networked Properties of Governance Processes	46
	Discerning the Properties of Governance Networks	55
	The Conceptual Architecture of the Book	59
	Summary	60
3	Characteristics of Actors Participating within Governance
	Networks	67
	Goal and Role Orientation of Network Actors.....	68
	Social Sector	70
	Geographic Scale	74
	Scale of Social Nodes.....	77
	Nodes as Organizations and Institutions	79
	Nodes as Groups of Individuals/Communities of Practice.....	79
	Nodes as Individual People.....	81
	Spanning Social Scales.....	82
	Center, Periphery, and Trajectories.....	82
	Variation in Actor Resources and Stock of Available Resources to/
	Provided by Actors	84
	Financial Capital	86
	Physical Capital	86
	Natural Capital.....	86
	Human Capital.....	89
	Social Capital	89
	Political Capital	90
	Cultural Capital	91
	Knowledge/Intellectual Capital	92
	Actor Characteristics: A Review.....	92
4	Characteristics of Ties between Actors.....	95
	Social Exchange Theory.....	96
	Resources Exchanged.....	99
	Formality and the Coordination of Ties	101
	Strength of Ties	102
	Flow of Authority across Ties.....	104
	Command and Control	107
	Concession and Comprise	108
	Cooperation and Collaboration	109
	Competition	111
	Characteristics of Ties: A Review.....	112
5	Network-Wide Functions	115
	Network-Wide Functions.....	116
	Operating Functions.....	117
	Coordinating Action.....	118

	Mobilizing and Exchanging Resources	118
	Diffusing and Sharing Information	118
	Building Capacity	119
	Learning and Transferring Knowledge	119
	Policy Stream Functions	120
	Defining and Framing Problems	121
	Designing and Planning Policy	122
	Coordinating Policy	123
	Implementing Policy through Regulation	123
	Implementing Policy through Service Delivery	124
	Evaluating Policy	124
	Bringing Political Alignment	124
	Policy Domain Functions	125
	Network Functions: A Review	127
6	Network-Wide Structures	131
	Policy Tools	132
	Macro-Level Network Governance Structure	137
	Configurations of Governance Network Structure	140
	Intergovernmental Relations (IGRs)	141
	Intragovernmental Relations	145
	Interest Group Coalitions (IGCs)	145
	Regulatory Subsystems (RSSs)	149
	Grant and Contract Agreements (GCAs)	152
	Public-Private Partnerships (PPPs)	154
	Regional and Geogovernance (GG)	158
	Network Structures: A Review	159
7	Governance Networks as Complex Systems Dynamics	163
	Permeability and Openness of Boundaries and Borders	166
	System Boundaries	168
	Input-Output Flows	171
	Inputs	172
	Processes	172
	Outputs	173
	Outcomes	173
	Feedback	174
	Negative Feedback	175
	Positive Feedback	176
	The Medium of Feedback in Governance Networks	177
	Policy Tools and Feedback	178
	Representation and Interest Group Competition as Feedback	179
	Acts of Administration as Feedback	180

Accountability as Feedback.....	180
Performance Measurement as Feedback.....	180
Network Governance as a Systems Construct.....	181
Governance Networks as Complex Adaptive Systems.....	183
8 How Are Governance Networks Managed?.....	189
The Convergence of Public Administration Paradigms.....	190
The Contribution of Classical PA to a Network Administration Paradigm.....	190
The Contribution of New Public Management to a Network Administration Paradigm.....	192
The Contribution of Collaborative Public Management to a Network Administration Paradigm.....	194
A Governance Network Administration Paradigm.....	196
Governance Network Administration (GNA) Strategies.....	199
Oversight and Mandating.....	200
Providing Resources.....	202
Negotiating and Bargaining.....	202
Facilitation.....	205
Participatory Governance.....	207
Boundary Spanning and Brokering.....	210
Systems Thinking.....	211
Decision Architectures, Communities of Practice, and Administrative Discretion.....	214
How Does Governance Network Administration Differ across Social Sectors?.....	219
Summary Implications for the Role of Managing Mixed-Actor Governance Networks.....	222
9 The Hybridized Accountability Regimes of Governance Networks ...	225
Governance and Accountability.....	225
Modes of Sector Governance.....	227
Corporate Governance.....	230
Nonprofit Governance.....	234
Governance of Governments.....	236
Democratic Anchorage.....	240
Accountability in Terms of Relationships between Network Actors.....	242
A Governance Network Accountability Framework.....	243
Democratic Frame.....	246
Market Frame.....	248
Administrative Frame.....	249
Overlapping Accountability Frames.....	250
Implications of Sector Blurring.....	251

Nonprofit-Government Accountability Alignments.....	252
Corporation-Government Accountability Alignments.....	253
Hybridization of Accountability Regimes	258
10 Governance Network Performance Management and Measurement	261
Governance and Performance	262
The Performance Measurement Movement.....	263
Performance Management Systems.....	265
Challenging the Performance Paradigm.....	269
Challenges for Performance Management Systems in Governance Networks	272
Using Data to Drive Decisions and Actions.....	276
Performance Management and Network Accountability	278
11 Governance Networks Analysis: Implications for Practice, Education, and Research	285
Deepening Our Situational Awareness of Governance Networks.....	286
Integration of Governance Network Analysis into Formal Education and Training.....	288
Case Study Analysis.....	291
Hypothesis Generation: Deductive Testing Leading to Generalization....	292
Modeling Complex Governance Networks.....	296
Utilizing Action Research and Modeling to Inform Planning Design and Practice	297
Governance Networks, 2.0	299
12 Conclusion: Smart (Democratic) Governance Systems	301
Smart Systems as Ensuring Democratic Anchorage	302
Smart Systems as Governing Dynamic Networks.....	304
Bibliography.....	307
Appendix A: Governance Network Taxonomy.....	331
Appendix B: Case Study Template	337
Index	343
