

Contents

List of Contributors

Preface

vii

ix

Chapter 1	Introduction: The Ambiguity of Multi-level Governance G.P.E. Walzenbach	1
-----------	---	---

PART 1 ECONOMIC POLICIES

Chapter 2	European Competition Policy: Governance as Graduated Co-ordination G.P.E. Walzenbach	17
-----------	---	----

Chapter 3	Polycentric Governance Meets the New Economy: The United States, the European Union and Transnational Regulation Thomas C. Lawton, Steven McGuire and G.P.E. Walzenbach	35
-----------	---	----

Chapter 4	Dematerializing Economies and Local Growth: A Case for ad hoc Governance Tony Gore and Don J. Webber	53
-----------	--	----

PART 2 SOCIAL POLICIES

Chapter 5	European Employment Policy: Governance as Regulation Graham Taylor	71
-----------	--	----

Chapter 6	Social Security Policy: European Goals and Institutional Barriers Rosa Mulé	89
-----------	--	----

Chapter 7	Multiple Agoras: Environmental Policy between Globalization and European Transformation Jörg Dürrschmidt	105
-----------	---	-----

PART 3 POLICIES WITH EXTERNALITIES

Chapter 8	Immigration and Asylum Policy in Europe: A Challenge to the Model of Multi-level Governance Oliver Schmidtke	127
Chapter 9	A Capability-implementation Gap in the Making? Multi-level Governance and European Crisis Management Liisa Laakso	147
Chapter 10	Interparliamentary Co-operation in the European Union: Towards Multi-level Governance Donatella M. Viola	165
Chapter 11	Conclusion: An Interdisciplinary Approach to European Governance? G.P.E. Walzenbach	187
Bibliography		203
Index		237