

Contents

Foreword

Anthony Sutcliffe

vii

Acknowledgements

xi

Illustration Sources and Credits

xiii

The Contributors

xv

- 1 Capital Cities in the Twentieth Century 1
David L.A. Gordon
- 2 Seven Types of Capital City 8
Peter Hall
- 3 The Urban Design of Twentieth Century Capitals 15
Lawrence J. Vale
- 4 Paris: From the Legacy of Haussmann to the Pursuit of Cultural Supremacy 38
Paul White
- 5 Moscow and St Petersburg: A Tale of Two Capitals 58
Michael H. Lang
- 6 Helsinki: From Provincial to National Centre 73
Laura Kolbe
- 7 London: The Contradictory Capital 87
Dennis Hardy
- 8 Tokyo: Forged by Market Forces and Not the Power of Planning 101
Shun-ichi J. Watanabe
- 9 Washington: The DC's History of Unresolved Planning Conflicts 115
Isabelle Gournay
- 10 Canberra: Where Landscape is Pre-eminent 130
Christopher Vernon

11	Ottawa-Hull: Lumber Town to National Capital David L.A. Gordon	150
12	Brasília: A Capital in the Hinterland Geraldo Nogueira Batista, Sylvia Ficher, Francisco Leitão and Dionísio Alves de França	164
13	New Delhi: Imperial Capital to Capital of the World's Largest Democracy Souro D. Joardar	182
14	Berlin: Capital under Changing Political Regimes Wolfgang Sonne	196
15	Rome: Where Great Events not Regular Planning Bring Development Giorgio Piccinato	213
16	Chandigarh: India's Modernist Experiment Nihal Perera	226
17	Brussels: Capital of Belgium and 'Capital of Europe' Carola Hein	237
18	New York City: Super-Capital – Not by Government Alone Eugenie L. Birch	253
19	What is the Future of Capital Cities? Peter Hall	270
	Bibliography	275
	Subject Index	295
	Index of Towns and Cities	299
	Index of Persons	301