

Incomparable singer. Dynamic performer.

Wilson Pickett is one of the icons of American music, the bad boy of soul whose hits like "In the Midnight Hour" and "Mustang Sally" are a permanent part of America's collective imagination. It's Harder Now, his first new recording in over a decade, finds The Wicked One in classic soul territory, with a set of all-new songs contributed by Wilson himself, producer Jon Tiven, and collaborators such as Dan Penn, Don Covay, Sally Tiven, Charlie Feldman, Sky Williams and Donnie Fritts. Thirty five years after his first hits, he's at the peak of his vocal powers, bringing these songs to life with passion and soul-shouting style. This is the real raw deal - accept no substitute 'cause there ain't none!
