

Contents

Preface	iii
List of Abbreviations	x
Introduction East Asia in 1999	1
1. East Asia 10 years after the End of the Cold War.....	3
2. Discord among the Major Powers.....	4
3. The Necessity for Regional Cooperation.....	6
Part I Security Issues of East Asia
Chapter 1 Post-Crisis Changes in Indonesia and ASEAN.....	13
1. Indonesia under New President Wahid.....	15
(1) A Year of Elections.....	15
(2) East Timor Leaves Indonesian Rule	19
(3) Indonesia in Coming Years.....	25
2. ASEAN at a Turning Point.....	28
(1) ASEAN 10: Changes and Challenges.....	28
(2) Prospects for a New Approach to Security	32
(3) "ASEAN Way" Facing the Test of East Timor.....	36
(4) ASEAN and Major Non-ASEAN Powers	41
3. Military Trends in the Post-Crisis Southeast Asia.....	46
(1) An Increase of Disputes in the Region.....	46
(2) Defense Spending and Military Buildup	50
(3) Expanding Regional Military Cooperation	57
Chapter 2 Nuclear Weapons and Ballistic Missiles in East Asia	63
1. Nuclear Weapons and Ballistic Missiles Buildup in East Asia.....	65
(1) The Stance of East Asian Countries	65
(2) China: Growing Arsenal of Nuclear Weapons and Ballistic Missiles	67
(3) North Korea: Suspected Nuclear Weapons Development, and the Ballistic Missile Problem	69

2. Control of Nuclear Weapons and Ballistic Missiles, and the Proliferation Problem.....	72
(1) Reactions of the United States, South Korea and Japan to the North Korean Missile Problem.....	72
(2) Management of Nuclear Materials in Russia, and International Cooperation	74
(3) Inadequate Non-Proliferation Policy of China	77
(4) The Receding Entry into Force of the CTBT, and East Asian Countries	79
3. BMD and East Asian Security	82
(1) The Stance of Japan, Taiwan and South Korea	82
(2) Demarcation of Strategic ABM and TMD Systems, and the Reaction of China and Russia.....	83
4. Japan's Policies on Nuclear Disarmament and BMD	88
(1) Efforts on Nuclear Disarmament.....	88
(2) Approach to BMD.....	90
Chapter 3 Maritime Security Environment in East Asia	93
1. The Pursuit of Suspicious Ships in the Sea of Japan	95
(1) Launching of the Pursuit.....	95
(2) An Order to Conduct "Maritime Security Operations"	97
(3) Countermeasures against Suspicious Ships: Japan and Other Countries	101
2. Increasing Activeness of Marine Scientific Research and Naval Vessels of China.....	104
(1) Activities of Chinese Vessels in the Japanese EEZ	104
(2) Competing Claims to the Jurisdiction over the Sea.....	106
3. The Growing Rampancy of Piracy in Asian Seas	107
(1) The Actual State of Piracy.....	107
(2) Causes of Piracy and Countermeasures of Countries Concerned	110
4. Role of Maritime Defense Capability, and Multilateral Cooperation	111
(1) Maritime Security and Emerging Role of Maritime Defense Capability	111
(2) International Cooperation, the U.N. Convention on the Law of the Sea and Peace in the Sea	115

Chapter 4 A New Legal Framework for Japan-U.S.
Defense Cooperation	119
1. Circumstances Leading to the Passage of the Bills Related to the Guidelines for Japan-U.S. Defense Cooperation	122
(1) Japan-U.S. Joint Declaration on Security	122
(2) Review of the Guidelines for Japan-U.S. Defense Cooperation	124
2. An Outline of the Guidelines Legislation	127
(1) Amendments by the Diet to the Guidelines Bills	127
(2) Procedures for Taking Actions in "Situations in Areas Surrounding Japan"	131
(3) Measures Taken in Response to "Situations in Areas Surrounding Japan"	133
(4) Significance and Agendas Ahead	136
3. Reactions of East Asian Countries	138
(1) Japan Seeks Understanding of East Asian Countries .	138
(2) China: Attentively Watches the Moves Japan Makes .	139
(3) The Korean Peninsula: an Understanding South Korea and a Wary North Korea	141
(4) Russia: Wants a Clarification of "Situations in Areas Surrounding Japan"	142

Part II Countries in the Region

Chapter 5 The Korean Peninsula	147
1. Building a "Powerful Nation": North Korea's Domestic and Foreign Policies	149
(1) Promotion of "Army-First" Policy	149
(2) Tightening Control for Economic Reconstruction	151
(3) North Korea in Pursuit of Better Relations with China, Russia and Japan	153
2. South Korea: Fluid Domestic Politics and Active Diplomacy	157
(1) Escalating Rivalries between Ruling and Opposition Parties Ahead of a General Election	157
(2) Seeking International Support for Its "Engagement Policy"	161

3. “Engagement Policy” toward North Korea and Efforts to Build a Peace Regime.....	166
(1) Approaches toward North Korea by South Korea and the International Community	166
(2) The Fruit of Kim Dae Jung’s North Korea Policy	167
(3) North Korea’s Stance toward the South: Selective Exploitation and Precautions	170
(4) The “West Sea Incident” and General-Officer Talks	171
(5) The Four-Party Talks with No Visible Progress	173
(6) Perry Process and Moratorium on Missile Launch	174
4. Continuing Military Standoff.....	178
(1) South Korea: National Defense Recovering from the Economic Crisis	178
(2) Deepened U.S.-ROK Security Cooperation.....	182
(3) North Korea: Military Buildup with Emphasis on WMD	185
(4) Changing Military Situations and Reactions of North Korea.....	188
Chapter 6 China	191
1. Glory and Agonies: PRC in Its 50th Anniversary	193
(1) The Display of Leadership of Jiang Zemin and the Legitimacy of His Regime	193
(2) Anxiety under the Reform	197
2. China’s Diplomacy Aimed at Creating a Multipolar World Order.....	200
(1) Rivalry and Cooperation.....	200
(2) Grating Relations with the United States.....	201
(3) Strengthening Partnership with Russia.....	205
(4) With Ambivalence toward Japan	207
(5) China’s Relations with North and South Korea.....	210
(6) Friction over the Spratly Islands	212
3. Defense Buildup with a Focus on Qualitative Improvement.....	214
(1) Rejuvenation of the High Command and Jiang Zemin’s Leadership.....	214
(2) Toward More Efficient Management of the Armed Forces.....	216

Contents

(3) Building Up the Military with Science and Technology	219
(4) Continuing Modernization of Military Equipment	223
4. Taiwan Approaching a Post-Lee Teng-hui Era.....	225
(1) A Three-Way Election Campaign and the Devastating Earthquake.....	225
(2) The Armed Forces under a New Leadership	227
5. Tension across the Taiwan Strait	232
(1) The “Special State-to-State Relationship” and the “Two-State Theory”	232
(2) “China’s Missile Threat” and “Taiwan Missile Defense”	234
 Chapter 7 Russia.....	 239
1. Duma Election and Resignation of President Yeltsin	241
(1) Deterioration of the Chechen Situation, and the Rise of Prime Minister Putin.....	241
(2) Progress in the Reorganization of Political Forces.....	242
2. Opposition to the U.S.-Centered “Unipolar World Order”	244
(1) The Kosovo Crisis and Russia’s Foreign and Military Policies	244
(2) Russia’s Foreign Policy: Goals and Limits.....	245
(3) Continued Strengthening of Cooperation with China .	247
(4) Russia’s Efforts to Mend Relations with North Korea.....	251
(5) Japan-Russia Relations and Progress in Defense Exchanges.....	253
3. Moves to Review Defense Policy	256
(1) The Kosovo Crisis and Its Impact upon Threat Perception.....	256
(2) Armed Forces Reform and Readiness Problem	257
(3) Nuclear Deterrence Strategy Reinstated.....	258
(4) Proposed Plan to Unify Russia’s Strategic Nuclear Forces.....	259
(5) Impact of the Reform on the Russian Forces in the Far East.....	261
4. Russia’s Arms Exports and East Asia.....	262
(1) East Asia as an Arms Export Market	262

(2) Arms Exports to China	263
(3) Arms Exports to India	265
(4) Arms Exports to Other Countries	266
Chapter 8 U.S. Security Policy for East Asia	269
1. U.S. Military Presence in East Asia	272
(1) U.S. Strategy for East Asia	272
(2) Impact of Kosovo on U.S. Military Strategy in East Asia	273
2. Thorny U.S.-China Relations.....	275
(1) U.S. Policy to Engage China.....	275
(2) Mounting Mutual Distrust	276
(3) Mending Relations Halfway	280
3. North Korea Policy Review and Its Significance	283
(1) Factors That Prompted Policy Review	283
(2) “Underground Construction” and “Missiles”	284
(3) Closer Cooperation among Japan, the United States and South Korea.....	290
(4) Perry Report and Remaining Agendas	293
4. Approach to East Timor Issue.....	295
(1) U.S. Indonesia Policy and East Timor	295
(2) U.S. Role in International Force and Its Purpose	298