

INTRODUCTION	1
A NEW POLITICAL FAULT LINE	4
The Underlying Tension	4
Archetypes	9
Identity Politics in Action	16
WHY IDENTITY? WHY NOW?	19
Globalisation and the Decline of the Nation State	20
The Liberalisation Revolution	24
The Fragmentation of Class	27
Myth and History	29
Events and People	31
ALTERNATIVE POLITICS	32
Environmentalism and Conservationism	32
The Politics of Gender	35
Democratic Renewal and Human rights	36
Identity Politics as a Transition?	38
THE AGENDA FOR IDENTITY POLITICS	39
Majorities and Minorities	42
(a) Self-Determination and Secession	44
(b) Numbers Matter	48
(c) Pan-ethnicity	49
Sovereignty and States	51
The Economics of Identity	53
Family Values	57

MANAGING THE POLITICS OF IDENTITY	59
Some Guiding Principles	62
(a) Multiple Identity	62
(b) Decentralisation within
Democracy	63
(c) Order within Law	65
(d) A Shared Sense of Equity	66
(e) Practical Globalism	67
Role Models	71
 CONCLUSION	74
 SUMMARY	76
 REFERENCES	84