

Contents

Foreword by Dr. Joan Smith	ix
Author's Note	xv
Preface	xvii
Acknowledgments	xix

Part One What Dyslexia Really Is

Chapter 1	The Underlying Talent	3
Chapter 2	The Learning Disability	7
Chapter 3	Effects of Disorientation	14
Chapter 4	Dyslexia in Action	20
Chapter 5	Compulsive Solutions	27
Chapter 6	Problems with Reading	32
Chapter 7	Spelling Problems	38
Chapter 8	Math Problems	41
Chapter 9	Handwriting Problems	45
Chapter 10	The Newest Disability: ADD	52
Chapter 11	Clumsiness	59
Chapter 12	A Real Solution	62

Part Two Little P.D.—A Developmental Theory of Dyslexia

Chapter 13	How Dyslexia Happens	71
Chapter 14	The Two-Year-Old and the Kitten	76

Contents

Chapter 15	Ages Three to Five	79
Chapter 16	The First Day of School	82
Chapter 17	The Age of Disability	88

Part Three The Gift

Chapter 18	Understanding the Talent	97
Chapter 19	Curiosity	104
Chapter 20	Creativity	107
Chapter 21	The Gift of Mastery	111

Part Four Doing Something About It

Chapter 22	How Can You Tell?	117
Chapter 23	Symptoms of Disorientation	122
Chapter 24	The Mind's Eye	127
Chapter 25	Implementing the Davis Procedures	133
Chapter 26	Perceptual Ability Assessment	139
Chapter 27	Turning It Around	149
Chapter 28	Release and Review	178
Chapter 29	Fine Tuning	186
Chapter 30	Coordination	194
Chapter 31	Basic Symbol Mastery	197
Chapter 32	Three Steps to Easier Reading	213
Chapter 33	Symbol Mastery for Words	222
Chapter 34	Continuing the Process	234

Recommended References	239
Glossary	247
Index	255