Contents

1 Introduction 1
Melani Schröter and Charlotte Taylor

Part I Comparison as Means to Identify Silence and Absence 23

2 Not for Twitter: Migration as a Silenced Topic in the 2015 Spanish General Election 25
Manuel Alcántara-Plá and Ana Ruiz-Sánchez

3 Absence in Visual Narratives: The Story of Iran and Pakistan across *Time 65
Sameera Durrani

4 Intimations of 'Spring'? What Got Said and What Didn't Get Said about the Start of the Middle Eastern/North African Uprisings: A Corpus-assisted Discourse Study of a Historical Event 95
Alan Partington

5 Cross-media Studies as a Method to Uncover Patterns of Silence and Linguistic Discrimination of Sexual Minorities in Ugandan Print Media 125
Cecilia Strand

6 Critically Illuminating Relevant Absences in Public Sphere Arguments via Digital Mining of Their Weblinks: A Software-based Pedagogy 159
Kieran O'Halloran

7 Silence and Absence in Chinese Smog Discourses 191
Jiayi Wang and Dániel Z. Kádár

Part II Exploring Means that Produce Silence and Absence 213

8 Theoretical and Methodological Challenges in Identifying Meaningful Absences in Discourse 215
Patricia von Münchow

9 What's Not in a Frame? Analysis of Media Representations of the Environmental Refugee 241
Nina Venkataraman

10 A Discourse Analysis of Absence in Nigerian News Media 281
Taiwo Oluwaseun Ehineni

Part III Analysing Surface Indicators of Silence and Absence 303

11 What the f#@$!: Policing and Performing the Unmentionable in the News 305
Crispin Thurlow and Jamie Moshin

12 The Use of No Comment by Suspects in Police Interviews 329
Joanna Garbutt

13 Conspicuous by Presence: The Empty Signifier 'Interdisciplinarity' and the Representation of Absence 359
Dorte Madsen

Index 391