

CONTENTS

.....

Introduction / 1

TEXT BOX: THE PURPOSES OF A COLLEGE
EDUCATION / 6

1 How Universities Work / 8

TEXT BOX: THE HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY / 12
TEXT BOX: A STUDENT'S GUIDE TO COLLEGE
ADMINISTRATION / 17

2 Choosing a College / 22

TIP 1 You Can Get an Equivalent Classroom Education at Most Reasonably Selective Colleges and Universities / 23

TEXT BOX: NOBEL PRIZE WINNERS / 25

TIP 2 The Key Distinction Is between Small Colleges and Large
Universities / 26

TEXT BOX: WHERE DO PROFESSORS SEND THEIR CHILDREN TO COLLEGE? / 30

TIP 3 Reputation Doesn't Matter as Much as You Think / 31

TIP 4 The Main Importance of Reputation Is the Student Body It Attracts / 33

TEXT BOX: U.S. NEWS RATINGS / 34

TEXT BOX: MINORITIES AND COLLEGE CHOICE / 36

TIP 5 Look for Signs of a Personalized Education / 36

TIP 6 Consider the Cost / 37

TIP 7 Differences in the Strength of Particular Departments Are Not Usually a Good Basis for Choosing among Colleges / 39

TEXT BOX: CHOOSING A FOREIGN UNIVERSITY / 41

TIP 8 Consider the Different Varieties of General Education Programs / 41

TIP 9 Don't Worry; Most Students Are Happy with Their Choice / 43

3 Choosing Classes / 45

TIP 10 Consider Visiting Multiple Classes during the First Week of the Semester / 46

TIP 11 Usually Trust Your First Impressions / 47

TEXT BOX: PRIORITIES IN CHOOSING CLASSES / 48

TIP 12 Go for Variety, Especially Early On / 49

TIP 13 At Least Once a Year Pick a Class That Doesn't Seem to Fit Your Interests / 50

TIP 14 Take Classes with Heavy Writing Requirements / 51

TIP 15 Take as Many Small Seminars and as Few Large Lecture Courses as Possible / 53

TEXT BOX: WHAT DOES A GOOD LECTURE LOOK LIKE? / 56

TIP 16 Take Mostly Upper-Division Courses / 57

TIP 17 Focus More on Methods Than Topics / 58

TIP 18 Seek Out Classes That Provide You with Continuous Feedback and Take the Feedback Seriously / 59

TIP 19 Know the Status of Your Professors / 60

TIP 20 Learn to Be a Critical Reader of Student Evaluations of Faculty / 63

TIP 21 Ask Professors You Know What Courses They Would Recommend / 65

TIP 22 Take Courses That Relate to Each Other / 66

TIP 23 Study Abroad for at Least One Semester if Not an Entire Year / 67

TIP 24 Don't Succumb to the "Two Cultures" / 68

TIP 25 Don't Try to Get All of Your General Education Requirements Out of the Way in Freshman and Sophomore Year / 70

TIP 26 Audit Classes That You Don't Have Time to Take / 71

TIP 27 Consider Independent Study Classes / 72

TIP 28 Don't Take Too Many Classes with One Professor / 73

TIP 29 Don't Be Afraid to Exceed Requirements / 73

TIP 30 Unless You Plan to Major in Chemistry or Biology, Leave Medical School Requirements until Later / 74

TIP 31 Either Take Foreign Language Classes Seriously or Try to Place Out of Them / 75

TIP 32 Be Discerning in Choosing Internships for Credit / 76

TIP 33 Take Prerequisites with a Grain Of Salt / 77

TIP 34 Consider Graduate Courses / 77

4 Choosing a Major / 78

TIP 35 Sample a Lot of Different Departments / 79

TIP 36 Choose a Major That You Love / 80

TEXT BOX: SOME NEGLECTED MAJORS / 81

TIP 37 Find Out What You Are Good At / 83

TIP 38 Don't Worry Too Much about the Job Prospects of the Major / 85

TIP 39 Choose Smaller Majors / 86

TIP 40 Choose More Structured Majors / 87

TEXT BOX: WOMEN AND THE SCIENCES / 88

TIP 41 Go to an Academic Lecture Given in the Department / 89

TIP 42 Be Skeptical about Double or Triple Majoring / 90

TIP 43 Write a Senior Thesis / 91

TIP 44 Don't Get Too Stressed Out over Your Choice / 93

5 Being Successful / 95

TIP 45 Manage Your Time / 95

TIP 46 Show Professors That You Are Working Hard / 96

TIP 47 Join a Small Study Group / 97

TEXT BOX: WHAT GRADES MEAN / 97

TIP 48 Ask for Help / 99

TIP 49 Don't Let Your Instructors Suspect That You Are Taking Advantage of Them / 99

TEXT BOX: GRADE INFLATION / 100

TIP 50 Learn the Rules of Critical Thinking and Apply Them
Constantly / 102

TIP 51 Professorial Shortcuts for Writing / 106

TIP 52 Professorial Shortcuts for Doing Research / 108

TEXT BOX: SELF-CARE / 110

6 Interacting with Professors / 112

TIP 53 Be Respectful / 112

TIP 54 Be Curious about the Subject / 113

TEXT BOX: INTERACTING WITH FEMALE
PROFESSORS / 114

TIP 55 Visit All Your Professors during Office Hours
at Least Once / 115

TIP 56 Get to Know at Least One Professor Well / 116

TIP 57 Find Out What Your Professors Research / 117

TEXT BOX: "TENURED RADICALS" / 118

TIP 58 Send E-mails Judiciously, Answer E-mails Promptly / 119

TEXT BOX: WRITING AN EFFECTIVE E-MAIL / 120

TIP 59 Avoid Complaints about Grades / 121

TIP 60 Become a Research Assistant / 123

TIP 61 Ask for Recommendation Letters from Professors Who Know You Well / 124

7 Learning Outside the Classroom / 127

TIP 62 Get Involved in Extracurricular Activities / 127

TIP 63 Subscribe to an Intellectual Magazine / 128

TIP 64 Read Academic Blogs / 129

TEXT BOX: ACADEMIC BLOGS / 131

TIP 65 Attend a Public Lecture Every Week / 132

TIP 66 Spend Your Free Time in Coffeehouses / 133

TIP 67 Make Friends with People Who Have Different Beliefs and Experiences / 134

TIP 68 Get to Know Foreign Students / 136

8 Going to Graduate School / 138

TIP 69 There Seldom Are Strong Reasons to Go to Graduate School
Immediately after College / 138

TIP 70 Learn More about the Career Graduate School Is Leading To / 140

TIP 71 Graduate School Is Not Just Advanced Undergrad / 141

TEXT BOX: GETTING FELLOWSHIPS / 142

TIP 72 Ask Your Professors' Advice about PhD Programs in Their Field / 143

TIP 73 PhD Programs Are Not for Training Teachers / 144

TEXT BOX: TYPES OF GRADUATE PROGRAMS / 145

TIP 74 Prestige Does Matter for PhD Programs / 146

TIP 75 Talk to Current Grad Students / 147

9 Secrets of the Guild: Rules Professors Live By / 149

RULE A Reduce Thy Teaching Load / 149

TEXT BOX: THE CAMPUS NOVEL / 151

RULE B Publish or Perish / 153

RULE C Pamper Grad Students / 155

RULE D Limit the Effort You Devote to Undergraduates / 156

TEXT BOX: HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR PROFESSORS / 159

RULE E Play the Market / 160

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS / 163

RECOMMENDED READING / 165

INDEX / 167