

Table of Contents

Natassa Economidou Stavrou & Mary Stakelum
Introduction	7
I. DEMOCRACY AND INCLUSION IN MUSIC EDUCATION: MAPPING THE TERRAIN
Adam Ockelford (England)
Exceptional Measures: Education through Music for Children on the Autism Spectrum	17
Ruth Wright (Canada)
Injustice and Exclusion in Music Education. Politics in Pedagogical Practice (or Why Every Learner Matters but Some Matter More than Others)	35
Lucy Durán (England)
Growing into Music in Mali. Perspectives on Informal Learning from West Africa	49
Natassa Economidou Stavrou (Cyprus)
Every Learner Counts. Addressing our Learners' Needs in Music Teaching and Learning	65
Christoph Stange (Germany)
Music and the Sense of Motion. Establishing Relationships through Dance Movement	81
II. MUSIC EDUCATION FOR ALL: INSIGHTS FROM SCHOOLS AND TEACHER EDUCATION
Mary Stakelum (England)
Harnessing Everyday Uses of Technology to Create Inclusive Musical Interactions in the Classroom	97
Martin Fautley & Victoria Kinsella (England)
Bloom's Taxonomy and Higher Order Thinking	111
Anne-Marie O'Farrell & Lorraine O'Connell (Ireland)
Educating Third-Level Music Students in and for the Community. A Composition Project with Primary School Children	125

Sandra Rimkutė-Jankuvienė and Rūta Girdzijauskienė (Lithuania) Fostering Musical Creativity with Musical Computer Technologies (MCT). A Case Study	143
Nikoletta Polydorou (Cyprus) Student-Centred Learning and the Music Classroom	159
Ingeborg Lunde Vestad (Norway) Ethnography and Discourse Analysis. A Combined Approach to the Exploration of Marginalisations in Young Children's Musical Lives	171
Konstantina Dogani (Greece) Our 'Butterfly Effect' in Music Group Improvisation	189
III. PROVIDING ACCESS TO MUSIC EDUCATION FOR SPECIAL LEARNERS AND AT-RISK POPULATIONS
Maria Yennari (Cyprus) Deaf Children and the Singing Voice	209
Sanna Kivijärvi & Markku Kaikkonen (Finland) The Role of "Special Music Centre Resonaari" in Advancing Inclusive Music Education in Finland	229
Ana Veloso (Portugal) This is My Voice in Music. Creating New Life Opportunities from Collective Musical Participation	241
Lelouda Stamou (Greece) Music Education for the Well-Being of At-Risk Children and Youth	257
The Editors	273
The Authors	274