

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
Welcome to PAR for Educational Leaders	1
Our Approach to PAR	2
Our Readers	3
Features	4
How to Use This Book	5
Final Notes	6
1. The Participatory Action Research Model	7
Reflective Questions	8
Section 1: PAR—A Tool for Change	9
PAR as a Tool for Educational Leadership	9
Reflective Questions	12
Section 2: Research and Action in the PAR Process	12
Reflective Questions	16
Section 3: Participatory Research as a Tool to Address Adaptive Change	17
An Example of PAR Use in the Classroom	19
Task 1.1: Beginning a Reflective Journal	22
Conclusion	23
2. The Tenets of PAR: Ethics, Purpose, and Logic	25
Reflective Questions	25
Section 1: Ethics	26
Ethical Elements	28

Task 2.1: The Formation of an Ethical Plan for PAR Projects	31
Reflective Questions	32
Section 2: The Power of Purpose	32
Format for Purpose Statements	33
Task 2.2: Multiple Journal Entries Define Purpose	33
Reflective Questions	34
Section 3: Logic Models	35
Task 2.3: Planning Your First Draft of Your Logic Model	43
Conclusion	44
3. Starting to Research	45
Reflective Questions	45
Section 1: Asking Good Research Questions	45
Task 3.1: PAR Practitioners Reflect On and Share Their Initial Ideas for Research Questions	49
Surfacing Assumptions	50
Task 3.2: Surfacing Assumptions	51
Reflective Questions	52
Section 2: Informal and Formal Reviews of Literature	53
Task 3.3: The Mini "Lit Review"	55
Reflective Questions	57
Section 3: A Brief Overview of the Basic Research Methods	57
Qualitative Methods	58
Quantitative Methods	59
Reflective Practice	61
Task 3.4: Reflective Journal Practice	62
Conclusion	63
4. Qualitative Data Collection	65
How Is Qualitative Evidence Useful?	66
What Makes Qualitative Evidence Difficult?	68
Reflective Questions	68
Section 1: Qualitative Data Collection Methods	69
Data Collected Directly in Words From People:
Interviews and Focus Groups	71
Data Collected Through a Process of Change: Reflective Data/Field Notes/Anecdotal Accounts	73
Data Collected During the Event(s) Being Studied:
Observations/Student Work/Logs	75
Task 4.1: Collecting a Variety of Qualitative Data	77
Reflective Questions	78

Section 2: Maximum Success and Rigor	78
Managing Time and Resources	79
How to Make It More Rigorous	80
Introduction to Mixed Methodology	81
Task 4.2: Data-Planning Matrix	82
Conclusion	83
5. Qualitative Analysis	85
Reflective Questions	88
Section 1: Stages in Analyzing Qualitative Evidence	88
Graphic Organizers	88
Codes	88
Memos	89
Families	90
Triangulation	90
Rubrics and Multiple Observers	91
Similarities and Differences	92
Reflective Questions	93
Section 2: Validity, Credibility, and Reliability in the
Analysis of Qualitative Data	93
Task 5.1: Practice Analysis of Data	94
Conclusion	95
6. Quantitative Evidence	97
Data Found in Schools	98
Standardized Tests	98
Reflective Questions	99
Section 1: Questions Answered by Quantitative and
Mixed Methods Evidence	99
Observations and Time Studies	100
Surveys or Questionnaires	100
Descriptive Statistics	101
Variance and Correlation	101
Complex Questions	102
Reflective Questions	102
Section 2: Quantitative Data Collection	104
Observations	104
Questionnaires or Surveys	106
Samples	108
Time Series	109
Reflective Questions	110

Section 3: Analysis and Statistical Information	110
Descriptive Analysis	113
Frequencies	113
Survey Analysis	115
Percentages and Mean	115
Standard Deviation	117
The t -Test	118
Correlation	121
Reporting Results	122
Task 6.1: Preliminary Quantitative Analysis	123
Conclusion	123
7. Taking and Measuring Action	125
Reflective Questions	126
Section 1: How to Know What Actions to Take	126
Three Continuums of Action	126
The Continuum of Actions From Emancipatory
to Professional Development	128
The Continuum From the Individual to the
Organizational	129
Examples of PAR to Foster School Improvement	130
Teachers or Support Staff in a Classroom or
Whole-School Setting	130
Principals	131
Whole Schools or School Districts	132
Reflective Question	133
Section 2: Efforts at Change	133
The Challenge of Inertia	133
Defensive Behaviors	136
Task 7.1: Analyzing Force Fields and Defensive
Behaviors	137
Reflective Questions	139
Section 3: Measurement	139
Formative Evaluation	139
Focus and Responsiveness	141
Determining Variables With Which to Measure
Short-Term Outcomes	141
Measuring Outcome Steps	142
Conclusion	144
8. Cycles of PAR: The Power of the Iterative Process	145
Reflective Questions	148

Section 1: Messy Cycles	148
Reflective Questions	150
Section 2: Iterative Growth	150
Diagnosis	150
Action	151
Measurement	152
Reflection	153
Time Line and Group Process for Significant Success	153
Task 8.1: Using the Forward Planner	154
Reflective Questions	156
Section 3: Theoretical Understanding Bolsters
Action and Vice Versa	156
Conclusion	157
9. Final Analysis and Results	159
Alchemy	160
Reasoning and Writing	160
Standards for the Final Analysis	162
Reflective Questions	163
Section 1: Validity	163
My “Real” World—or Yours?	164
Theory Building and Testing	165
Reporting the Analysis Process to Others	165
Task 9.1: Building a Preliminary Report on the Analysis Process for Others	167
Reflective Questions	168
Section 2: Credible Interpretation	168
Graphic Organizers	169
Compelling Arguments	169
Disclaimers	170
Reflective Questions	170
Section 3: Reliability	170
Fallacy	172
Reflective Questions	173
Section 4: Passionate Conclusions	173
Task 9.2: One Sentence and Three Words	173
Conclusion	174
10. The Final Report	177
Reflective Questions	180
Section 1: The Formal Report	180
The Formal Academic Report	181

Reflective Questions	183
Section 2: The Formal Presentation	183
Prior to Beginning	184
Constraints	185
Openings and Closings	185
Content and How to Present It	185
Reflective Questions	186
Section 3: The Informal Individual Report	186
Reflective Questions	187
Section 4: The Community Report	188
Conclusion	188
11. PAR for Educational Leadership	191
Reflective Questions	192
Section 1: A Creative Tool in Environments of Chaos and Complexity	193
Counteracting Educator Mobility	194
Inclusion: Both/And Rather Than Either/Or	194
The Need for Flexibility	195
Prediction: The Study of Outliers	195
Feedback Loops	196
Reflective Questions	197
Section 2: A Tool for Adaptive Leadership	198
Creating a Holding Environment	199
Avoiding Implementation Failure	199
Reflective Questions	200
Section 3: PAR and Educational Reform Efforts	200
Professional Learning Communities and Communities of Practice	201
What Is Required?	202
The Development of an Inclusive Leadership Structure	203
Conclusion	204
Glossary	205
References	213
Index	223
About the Authors	235