

Contents

Abbreviations	ix
1. Introduction	1
PART I. THE WRITERS AND HISTORIOGRAPHY IN ANGEVIN ENGLAND
2. Writing Contemporary History in Medieval England	19
3. Roger of Howden: A Historian in Government	51
4. Ralph of Diceto: Putting English History in its Place	67
5. William of Newburgh: History and Interpretation	82
6. Gerald of Wales: The Polymath as Historian	95
7. Gervase of Canterbury and Ralph of Coggeshall: The Scope of English History	108
8. Richard of Devizes, Walter Map, and Richard de Templo: History and Literature	128
PART II. THE MAIN THEMES OF ANGEVIN HISTORIOGRAPHY
9. Henry II and Angevin Kingship	153
10. The Rise and Fall of Henry II	165
11. Rebellion	185
12. The Loss of Jerusalem and the Third Crusade	216
13. The Battles of God and King Richard	236
14. The Trials of the Lionheart	260
15. Church and Government from Becket to Longchamp	281
16. Outsiders: Women, the Poor, Heretics, and Jews	308
17. The English and their Neighbours	338
18. Conclusion	362
Bibliography	367
Index	389