

Contents

Introduction.....	ix
-------------------	----

Acronyms.....	xv
---------------	----

Part A: Contexts and Programs

1. Serving Seminary Students with a University Intensive English Program
Karen Schwenke, Biola University, La Mirada, California..... 3
2. Starting at Zero: A Two-year English Preparation Program for Polish Seminary Students
Carole Poleski, Saints Cyril & Methodius Seminary, Orchard Lake, Michigan..... 9
3. Individualized Support for ESL Students During Theological Studies
Amy Spencer, Pontifical College Josephinum, Columbus, Ohio..... 17
4. One Body, One Spirit: The Integrity of Institutional Goals and Instructional Decisions
Leslie Altena, Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania..... 21
5. Enculturation to American Academic Expectations: The Role of Peer Writing Tutor Programs
Jennifer Mawhorter, Claremont School of Theology, Claremont, California..... 33
6. Moving from English Literature to General English to English for Theology
Iris Devadason, United Theological College, Bangalore, India..... 41