

CONTENTS

Thanks	page iii
Acknowledgements	iii
To the student; To the teacher	vii
Structure of the book	viii
Methodology	ix

PART A MANIPULATION

1. Developing a critical mind	2
1. Rewriting	2
2. Editing	4
3. Punctuating	8
2. Expanding and contracting	12
1. Expanding	12
2. Contracting	13
3. Completing	18
4. Transforming	24

PART B IMITATION

1. Trying different genres	33
1. Acrostics	33
2. Advertisements	35
3. Haikus	36
4. Limericks	37
5. Proverbs	39
6. Riddles	41
7. Tall tales	42
8. Tongue-twisters	44
9. Visual poems	45
2. In the manner of ...	46
1. Imitating the style of a poem	46
2. Imitating the plot and style of a story	49
3. Retelling a well-known story	56
4. Parodying a writer or work	59
1. Parodying poems	59
2. Parodying prose	64
5. Parodying a genre	68

PART C VARIATIONS ON A THEME	71
1. Bias	72
2. The implied reader	82
3. Point of view and narrative technique	84
4. Different genres	87
1. Choosing a genre	87
2. Turning one genre into another	89
5. Illustrating parables and proverbs	93
6. Stylistic constraints	95
7. Exercises in style	95
8. Evaluation	97
1. Blurbs	97
2. Reviews	99
PART D INVENTION	102
1. Chain writing	103
2. Writing about paintings	103
1. Pages on canvas	103
2. Poems about paintings	105
3. From titles to stories	113
4. Completing a poem or story	114
1. Completing a poem	114
2. Completing a story	115
5. Filling the gaps	119
6. Imaginary worlds	121
KEY	124