

Contents

Preface	xi
Table of cases	xiii
Table of statutes	xvii
Table of statutory instruments	xxi
Table of international instruments	xxv
Abbreviations	xxvii
1 The defence solicitor	1
1.1 The adversarial process	1
1.2 Necessary skills and knowledge	2
1.3 The key stages for fee earners in conducting a criminal case	3
2 Legal and professional duties	5
2.1 Introduction	5
2.2 Your duty to your client	6
2.3 Your duty to the court	7
2.4 Confidentiality and privilege	13
2.5 Failure to disclose information about terrorism – offences	17
2.6 Failure to disclose information about money laundering – offences	17
2.7 Avoiding perverting the course of justice	17
2.8 Dealing with potential prosecution evidence	17
2.9 Your client's instructions	18
2.10 Prosecution witnesses	20
2.11 Safeguarding video evidence of children and vulnerable witnesses	24
2.12 Sexual offences: protected papers	24
3 Obtaining core information for the file	26
3.1 Introduction	26
3.2 Statement of personal history	26

4	Maintaining file quality	31
4.1	Improving your quality	31
4.2	Measuring quality	34
5	Managing the case	38
5.1	Case management systems	38
5.2	Diary management systems	41
5.3	Case information systems	42
5.4	Client care	45
5.5	Witness care	49
6	Shaping the case in the police station	52
6.1	Preparation in the police station	52
6.2	Representations as to evidence	55
6.3	Representations as to bail	57
6.4	Representations as to outcome	58
6.5	Representations to the custody officer	60
6.6	Representations to the CPS	60
6.7	Representations as to level of charge	61
7	Funding the case	62
7.1	Availability of public funding	62
7.2	The means test	65
7.3	The merits test: representation orders	68
7.4	Recovery of defence costs orders	74
7.5	Levels of representation	75
7.6	Private funding	75
8	The defendant in custody	77
8.1	Bail application	77
8.2	The number of bail applications	84
8.3	Appeals in relation to bail	84
8.4	Custody time limits	86
8.5	Communicating with a defendant in custody	87
9	Advising your client to plead guilty or not guilty; and on likely sentences if convicted	90
9.1	Advice on plea	90
9.2	Procedural bars	91
9.3	Investigating the evidence	92
9.4	Considerations before entering a guilty plea	94

9.5	Investigating the defence case	94
9.6	Advice on sentence	98
10	Choosing a place of trial	101
10.1	Plea before venue	101
10.2	Place of trial	104
10.3	Routes to the Crown Court	105
10.4	Youths	105
11	Preparing for sentence: plea of guilty or conviction	106
11.1	The sentencing process	106
11.2	Mitigating factors: the offence	118
11.3	Mitigating factors: personal	120
11.4	Mitigation as to penalty	120
11.5	Preparation	121
12	Directions and case management for trial: special measures, bad character and hearsay	122
12.1	The first hearing in the magistrates' court	122
12.2	Case management hearings in the Crown Court	127
12.3	Admissibility of defence disclosure for the purpose of case management	130
12.4	Making admissions and agreeing written statements	131
12.5	Special measures	132
12.6	Bad character	134
12.7	Hearsay	138
13	Preparing for trial: analysing witness testimony and obtaining disclosure	142
13.1	The need for timely and proactive preparation	142
13.2	Testing the prosecution case	143
13.3	Disclosure of the prosecution case: initial details	147
13.4	Disclosure of unused material	148
13.5	Seeking further disclosure through defence disclosure	158
13.6	Third party material	162
13.7	Disclosure in practice	164
14	Preparing for trial: gathering evidence and analysing physical material	166
14.1	Interviewing your client	166
14.2	Defence witnesses	171
14.3	Gathering other evidence to support the defence case	172
14.4	Questioning crime scene evidence	175
14.5	Prosecution disclosure of forensic science material	177

14.6	Types of physical material that may be evidence	178
14.7	Defence experts	180
15	Preparing for a Crown Court trial: process issues	183
15.1	Sending to the Crown Court	183
15.2	Guilty plea in the Crown Court	185
15.3	Application to dismiss	186
15.4	Not guilty plea in the Crown Court	189
15.5	Actions to take before the plea and trial preparation hearing	190
15.6	Representation for trial	192
15.7	Final stages	195
16	Youths	198
16.1	General considerations	198
16.2	Diversion from prosecution	202
16.3	Court proceedings	203
16.4	Representation orders	205
16.5	Preparing the client	205
16.6	Place of trial	206
16.7	Court bail and remand	207
16.8	Trial and preparation for trial	209
16.9	Sentencing	210
17	Clients at a disadvantage	213
17.1	Interpreters	213
17.2	Mentally disordered defendants	217
17.3	Asylum seekers	226
17.4	Modern Slavery Act 2015	226
18	Action after acquittal or conviction and sentence	227
18.1	Costs	227
18.2	Issues on acquittal	231
18.3	Issues on conviction/sentence	231
18.4	Imprisonment	231
18.5	Appeals against conviction and/or sentence	232
18.6	Appeal against a judge's ruling	236
18.7	Re-trial following tainted acquittals	236
18.8	Double jeopardy/applications to quash acquittal	237
18.9	Criminal cases review commission	237

APPENDICES

1	Sample forms, checklists and letters	241
1.1	State of case form	242
1.2	Criminal file procedural review form	244
1.3	Peer review of criminal cases	247
1.4	Police station forms	250
1.5	Witnesses counter-notice	259
1.6	Application to extend time for service of defence statement (reg.3(3) and CrimPR Part 15)	260
1.7	Bail application checklist	261
1.8	Checklist for advice to client	264
1.9	Checklist of personal information	265
1.10	Checklist for mitigation	267
1.11	Witness checklist	268
1.12	Magistrates' court checklist	269
1.13	Crown Court checklist	272
1.14	Format for instructions to advocate	275
1.15	Checklist of enclosures to be included or sent electronically to advocate	276
1.16	Initial advice letter	277
1.17	Client care letter	279
1.18	Case plan	284
2	Law Society Practice Notes (extracts)	286
2.1	Conflicts of interests in criminal cases	287
2.2	Anti-terrorism	290
2.3	Criminal Procedure Rules 2015: solicitors' duties	296
2.4	Criminal plea in absence of sufficient prosecution case information	312
2.5	Communication with prisoners by mobile phone	313
2.6	Virtual court first hearings	315
2.7	Withdrawing from a criminal case	318
2.8	Police interviews involving sign language interpreters	321
2.9	Use of interpreters in criminal cases	322
2.10	Defence costs orders	326
2.11	Defence witness notices	329
2.12	Statutory defences available to asylum seekers charged with document offences	333
2.13	Rejecting un-renumerative publicly funded criminal work	337
3	The Witness Charter (extracts)	341

CONTENTS

4	Professional skills	345
5	Working with interpreters	348
6	Suggested Guidance for Bail Decision-takers	353
7	Standards of Competence for the Accreditation of Solicitors and Representatives Advising at the Police Station	359
8	Standards of Competence for the Accreditation of Solicitors Representing Clients in the Magistrates' Court	369
9	Sample instructions to expert	380
10	Finding a defence expert	382
	Index	383