

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction: How to Use This Book	ix
1 What are the Creative Industries?	1
Defining the Creative Industries	1
Studying the Creative Industries – Three Approaches	7
Summary	20
Recommended Reading	20
2 Creativity and Commerce	22
Patronage: Wealth, Power and Religion in Italian Renaissance Painting	24
The Marketplace: English Theatre in the Time of Shakespeare	29
Reproduction and Mass-production: The Print Revolution	31
Industrial Production	34
Industrialized Media Production: The Studio System	38
Summary	41
Recommended Reading	41
Part 1 Working in the Creative Industries	43
3 Institutions, Ownership and Entrepreneurship	45
The Organization of Production	46
Workplaces	55
Work Structures	57
Work Patterns	59
Finding Work	60
Career Trajectories and Portfolios	62
National and International Perspectives	65
Summary	68
Recommended Reading	68
4 The Business of Creativity	70
Sole Traders and Microbusinesses	70
Financing a Creative Business	79
Contracts and Rights	79

Business Models	80
PEST: Political, Economic, Social and Technological Factors	84
Clustering and the Sense of Creative Community	86
Summary	89
Recommended Reading	90
5 Work Routines and Work Cultures	92
Employees: Staffers, In-house Workers	92
Freelancers and Portfolio Workers	102
Networking	104
Equality of Opportunity?	114
Summary	120
Recommended Reading	120
Part 2 Production and Circulation of Products	123
6 Creative Producers and Products	125
Creative Goods and Services: Tangible and Intangible	125
Creative Originals Producers	126
Creative Content Producers	128
Creative Experience Providers	131
Creative Service Providers	132
From Simple Creative Goods to Complex Creative Goods	134
Summary	137
Recommended Reading	137
7 Research, Development and Production	138
Research and Development	138
Production	147
Summary	156
Recommended Reading	156
8 Circulation: Marketing and Distribution of Creative Products	158
Circulation	158
The Mass Market Model	159
Channels of Distribution and Marketing	160
What is Marketing?	161
Selling Stuff: Retail and its Disruptions	163
Summary	173
Recommended Reading	173

Part 3 The Creative Economy	175
9 Institutional Commissioning and Financing Structures	177
Business Models in the Television Sector	177
Commissioning in Television	179
How Do Writers and Producers Get TV Commissions?	180
Finding a Route In	184
Commissioning and the Business of Magazine Publishing	187
Summary	193
Recommended Reading	193
10 Clients, Funders and Going It Alone	195
Working to Brief: The Client Relationship	195
Public Funding	203
Entrepreneurial Approaches	206
Self-funding	211
Crowdfunding	213
Summary	215
Recommended Reading	216
11 The Changing Economic Landscape	217
Creativity and Commerce: Novelty, Risk and Change	218
Changing Work Routines and Work Cultures	219
Changing Structures and Models	223
Jobs That Don't Exist Yet	225
Recommended Reading	226
Glossary	227
References	247
Index	263