

Contents

List of figures	ix
List of tables	x
Notes on contributors	xi

Introduction: formulating diversity studies	1
Steven Vertovec

PART I

Dimensions of diversity 21

1 Gender – a central dimension of diversity	23
Andrea D. Bührmann
2 Age, ageism and social identity in later years	33
John Vincent
3 Disability and diversity	43
Carol Thomas
4 Thinking about race in an age of diversity	52
Katharina Schramm
5 Racing diversity: ethnicity, euphemisms, and ‘others’	60
Ruth Mandel
6 Analysing status diversity: immigration, asylum, and stratified rights	67
Lydia Morris
7 Sexual diversity	75
Momin Rahman
8 Language: the great diversifier	83
Jan Blommaert

9	Religious differentiation and diversity in discourse and practice Kim Knott	91
10	The diversity of milieu in diversity studies Dariusz Zifonun	98
11	Caste in India: constructs and currents Surinder S. Jodhka	106
PART II
	Historical geographies of diversity	115
12	Diversity and the Roman Empire Peter Heather	117
13	Diversity and the nature of the Ottoman Empire: from the construction of the imperial old regime to the challenges of modernity Nora Lafi	125
14	Race and labour, forced and free, in the formation and evolution of Caribbean social structures Colin Clarke	132
15	Silent minority: celebrated difference, caste difference, and the Hinduization of independent India Rupa Viswanath	140
16	Re-imagining Balkan diversity beyond and 'straight through' the ethno-national Jelena Tasic	151
17	European Fascism and its aftermath Keith Lowe	159
18	Diversity, xenophobia and the limits to the post-apartheid state Alex Wafer	166
19	Situating diversity in the global city: emerging challenges and possibilities in Singapore Junjia Ye	173
20	Racial boundaries and persistent inequality: the case of African Americans Jessica S. Welburn	181

21	The question of sectarianism in Middle East politics Sami Zubaida	193
----	---	-----

PART III

Policies and politics of diversity 201

22	Governing diversity Brendan O'Leary	203
23	Equality for whom? Sarah Spencer	216
24	Fundamental rights and minorities Kristin Henrard	223
25	When law meets diversity: implications for women's equal citizenship Ayelet Shachar	234
26	Diversity and social welfare: to restrict or include Jenny Phillimore	245
27	Diversity management John Wrench	254

PART IV

Encounters and diversity 263

28	Diversity unpacked: from heterogeneities to inequalities Thomas Faist	265
29	Discrimination, diversity, and work Vincent J. Roscigno and Jill E. Yavorksy	274
30	Contact and prejudice Ben Fell and Miles Hewstone	284
31	Diversity and social cohesion Allison Harell and Dietlind Stolle	294
32	Diversity in United States and British higher education in a national context Natasha Warikoo	302

33	Xenophobia: the role of political articulation Jens Rydgren	310
34	Conviviality: (re)negotiating minimal consensus Tilman Heil	317
35	Locality and diversity: the city as arena of ethnic expression and accommodation William Safran	325
36	Segregation, mixing and encounter Deborah Phillips	337
PART V
	Fusions of diversity	345
37	Assimilation, diversity, and change Nancy Foner	347
38	From creolization to syncretism: climbing the ritual ladder Charles Stewart	355
39	Intersectionality: assembling and disassembling the roads Helma Lutz	363
40	Cultural complexity Thomas Hylland Eriksen	371
41	Critical diversity literacy: essentials for the twenty-first century Melissa Steyn	379
	Index	390