

Contents

About the Author	ix
Acknowledgements	x
List of Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	1
Hospitality: Ethics, Space and Affect	5
Managing Hospitality: Ethics and Power	10
Structure of the Book	14
1 Genocidal Hospitality: Homes, Hotels and Homelands	18
Sovereign Silencing: Hotel Rwanda	19
Pastoral Feminising: Welcome to Sarajevo	24
Governmentalised Amnesia: Ararat	30
Conclusion	36
2 Humanitarian Hospitality: Refugee Camps	39
Assembled Hosts and Humanitarian Government	40
Domopolitics, Hospitality and Refugee Camps	45
Counter-Hospitalities: Seizing and Redirecting Camp Spaces	53
Conclusion	60
3 Flourishing Hospitality: Global Cities	63
The Urban Ethos, Host and Guests	64
Producing London by Welcoming the World	70
Redirecting Urban Hospitality	78
Conclusion	85
4 Unconditional Hospitality: (Trans-)Jordan as Postcolonial State	88
(Trans-)Jordan as a Postcolonial State?	90
The Hospitality of (Trans-)Jordan: Good Hosts and Bad Guests	93
The Guests' Production of (Trans-)Jordan	100

Selling Authentic Karam : Marketing Jordan's Welcome	108
Conclusion	113
5 (Auto)Immunising Hospitality: EUrope	117
EUrope as Space, Host and Ethos	119
The Road to EUrope: Immunity, Conditionality and Enlargement	126
EUropean Protection: Migration, Asylum and Outsourcing	132
EUrope's Quasi-Suicide: An Autoimmune Ethos and Hospitality	139
Conclusion	144
Conclusion: Risking Critical Practices of Hospitality	147
Risk and Autoimmunity	148
Hospitality as an Ethics of Post-Sovereignty	150
'European' Spaces of Perpetual Critique	155
References	158
Index	184