

Contents

1 Introduction to Outdoor/Environment Education 1

- Outdoor Education, What Is It? 2
- Environmental Education 14
- Conservation Education 17
- Outdoor Recreation 17
- A Holistic Approach 18
- References 19

2 A History of Outdoor/Environment Education 20

- History of Outdoor Education 20
- Two Early Programs 20
- Early Leaders 26
- Trends and Changes 45
- References 47

3 Objectives and Issues 49

- A Learning Triad 50
- Objectives 53
- Philosophies and Goals—A National Survey 63
- Issues 65

Summary	71
References	71

4 A Teaching Progression 72

Art Forms	74
Analogies	78
Sensory Awareness	79
Ecological Principles	83
Problem-Solving Processes	91
Decision Making	97
Ekistics	107
Summary	108
References	109

5 Basic Principles of Outdoor Pursuits 110

A Land Ethic	113
Outdoor Survival	114
Outdoor Behaviors	135
References	137

6 Sites for Outdoor Education 138

Amount of Land Needed	138
The School Site	143
Self-Guided Walks	144
Day Sites	156
Resident Sites	157
Recommendations	165
References	166

7 Field Trips 168

Purpose	168
Preparation	169
Leadership	174
Where Do We Go?	177
Reading History in the Environment	182
Night Hikes	185
References	187

8 Resident Outdoor Schools—Administration 188

- Lodging 190
- Eating 191
- Indoor Program Areas 193
- Outdoor Program Areas 193
- Time of Year 194
- Length of Stay 194
- Health and Safety 195
- Leasing and Contracts 196
- Staffing 197
- Organizing 202
- Funding 206
- Evaluation 207
- Summary 220
- References 223

9 Resident Outdoor Schools—Program Considerations 224

- Campfires 227
- Dining Halls 233
- Other Duties 234
- Schedules 236
- Public Relations 240
- Summary 241
- References 241

10 Examples of Outdoor-Education Programs 242

- Acclimatization 244
- OBIS 245
- Green Box 249
- The Environmental Strands 257
- National Park Service 268
- Sunship Earth 274
- U.S Forest Service 280
- Summary 282
- References 282

Appendixes

- A. American Camping Association Prerequisites for Camp Accreditation or Site Approval 283

B. Recommended Health Form	286
C. Optional Health Form	289
D. Camp Security Memo, Washington County, Oregon	292
E. Fire and Fire-Fighting Procedure, Camp Adams, Oregon	293
F. Lease	295
G. Bettendorf, Iowa, Letter to Parents	300
H. Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Letter to Parents	304
I. Canby, Oregon, Letter to Parents	306
J. U.S. Forest Service Scope and Sequence for Conservation and the School Curriculum	311

Credits 343

Index 345