

Contents

Notes on contributors	vii
Introduction	1
BOGDAN IANCU AND ELENA SIMINA TĂNĂSESCU
PART I
Administrative Autonomy and Democracy	9
1 Government and governance: The constitutional politics of institutional neutrality	11
BOGDAN IANCU
2 The people, the experts and the politicians: Is expertise a challenge to democratic legitimacy?	32
LUCIAN BOJIN
3 Rule of lawyers or rule of law?: On constitutional crisis and rule of law in Poland	51
ADAM CZARNOTA
4 Agencification as European Union acquis	64
JACQUES ZILLER
PART II
Case studies	81
5 The impact of national accountability agencies on the EU	83
ELENA SIMINA TĂNĂSESCU
6 De-politicization by Europeanization: The emergence of the fragmented state in South Eastern Europe	97
MARTIN MENDELSKI

vi	Contents
7	Hungary: Regulatory bodies in an illiberal democracy ATTILA VINCZE	119
8	Independence by law or by practice?: Taiwan's National Communications Commission and Central Bank JIUNN-RONG YEH AND WEN-CHEN CHANG	134
9	State reform in Brazil: More of the same? GILBERTO BERCOVICI	155
10	Implementation of separation of powers and scope of independence of politically neutral organs in Russia SERGEI A. BELOV	163
11	Independent regulation in the contemporary Italian legal system GIOVANNI FRAZZICA AND ANTONIO LA SPINA	175
	Afterword: The Need for independent regulatory authorities in the perspective of contemporary constitutionalism ANTONIO LA SPINA	191
	Index	202