

CONTENTS

Introduction	xi
1. The Ecological Era	1
The Return to Earth as Our Homeland
The Earth Is Ill	1
Ecological Diagnoses and Therapies	5
Ecological Crisis: Crisis of the Paradigm of Civilization?	8
What a Paradigm Is	9
The Emergence of the New Paradigm:
Planetary Community	11
The New Perspective: The Earth Seen from Beyond the Earth	13
Earth, the Living Superorganism: Gaia	15
The Universe under the Arc of Time and of Evolution	20
Complexity: Characteristic of the New Paradigm and of Nonlinear Logic	22
The Contribution of Ecofeminism	26
The Spiritual Depth of the Universe	28
Conclusion: Features of the Emerging Paradigm	31
2. An Ecological View of the Cosmo	35
Our Contemporary Story
The Stories of Humankind: From the Meaning of the Cosmos to Cosmogenesis	35
Ecology: Source of Cosmogenesis	41
Our Primordial Womb: Billions of Years of Fruitful Chaos	42
Our Cosmic Homeland: The Milky Way, Our Galaxy	46
Our Cosmic City: The Solar System	46
Our House: The Great Mother, Earth	47
Life: Self-Organizing Matter	50
Consciousness Is Cosmic and Personal	53
Human Beings: Co-creators of the Cosmos	56
The Uniqueness of Each Human Being	59
Essential Bibliography for This Chapter	61

3. The Ecological Crisis	63
The Loss of Connectedness
Causes and Excuses	64
Ultimate Root of the Crisis: The Disruption of Universal Connectedness	81
4. All the Capital Sins against Ecology	86
The Amazon
The Amazon: Temple of the Planet's Biodiversity	87
Undoing Myths about the Amazon: Neither the World's Lungs nor Its Storehouse	89
The Amazon Megaprojects: War on the Trees	92
The Dream of Chico Mendes and the Future of the Amazon	100
5. Liberation Theology and Ecology	104
Rivals or Partners?
The Ecological Age	104
Hearing the Cry of the Oppressed	107
The Most Threatened Beings in Creation: The Poor	110
Liberation and Ecology: The Bridge between North and South	113
Sons and Daughters of the Rainbow	114
6. Reclaiming the Dignity of Earth	115
Reclaiming the Sacred	115
A Pedagogy for Globalization	119
The Permanent Message of Original Peoples	122
A New World Ecological Order and Scenarios for Reaching It	127
An Ethics of Unlimited Compassion and Shared Responsibility	135
The Healing Power of Inner Ecology	136
7. All in God, God in All	140
The Theosphere
Awareness of God: First in the Universe, Then in the Human Being	141
Quantum Reality and the Supreme and Transcendent Energy: God	142

God within the Cosmogenic Process of the Universe	146
God in the Cosmic Dance of Creation	148
Panentheism: God in All and All in God	152
God, Interplay of Perichoretic Relationships:
The Blessed Trinity	154
The Silence of the Buddha and of Meister Eckhart	156
 8. "The Spirit Is Sleeping in the Rock"	 158
It Dwells in the Cosmos
From Cosmos to Spirit	159
From Spirit to Human Spirit	160
From Human Spirit to Divine Spirit	161
From the Divine Spirit to the Third Person of the Christian Trinity	163
The Spirit in Creation and Creation in the Spirit	166
The Spirit and the Female: Divinization of Woman	169
The Spirit and the Future of the Cosmos and Humankind	172
 9. "Split a Piece of Wood . . . and I Am There"	 174
The Cosmic Christ
From Cosmogenesis to Christogenesis	174
From Christogenesis to the Christ of Faith	178
From the Christ of Faith to the Historical Jesus	179
The Passion of the World and the Cosmic Christ	180
Resurrection: Revolutionizing Evolution	181
The Ultimate Foundation of Cosmic Christology	184
 10. Eco-Spirituality	 187
Feeling, Loving, and Thinking as Earth
The Need for Spiritual Revolutions	187
Spirituality and Cosmogenesis	190
An Ecologically Sustainable Spirituality	196
 11. All the Cardinal Ecological Virtues	 203
St. Francis of Assisi
The Secret Truth of Religious Polytheism	204
The Death of Heroic Myth and the Triumph of Foolishness	206
Reclaiming the Rights of the Heart and the Erotic	208
Kinship with the Least and Cosmic Democracy	210

St. Francis, Not a Romantic	212
The Marriage of Eros and Agape	213
Fusion of Outer and Inner Ecology	216
I Leave the Body and Hand You My Heart	219

Notes

221

Index

239