

Contents

Foreword by the Director General	6
The Origin and Development of the Collection of Photography and Cinema Technology	9
The Concept of the Collection	13
The Current Content of the Collection	15
Photographic Studio	18
Photographic Studio	21
The Development of Photographic Processes	21
Prehistory of Photography	21
Daguerreotype	26
Calotype	36
Salt Paper Prints	36
Wet Collodion Process	46
Albumen Papers	55
Ambrotype	59
Ferrotype	59
Dry Gelatin Plates	67
Dichromated Colloid Processes	76
Photographic Film	80
Digital Photography	92
Photographic Studio Equipment	97
Daylight Photographic Portrait Studio	103
Photographic Laboratory	115
Interactive Photographic Devices	123
Intercamera	128
Space in Photography	131
Holography	131
Mirror and Lenticular Stereoscopes	136
Stereoscopic Camera	140
Photogrammetry	156

Raster-Based Three-Dimensional Photography	161
Anaglyph	164
Colour Photography	169
Processes before the Invention of Colour Photography	169
Lippmann Process of Colour Photography	178
Three-Colour Photography	180
Autochromes	187
Multi-layered Colour Materials	190
Colour Instant Photography	199
Colours in Digital Photography	208
Interactive Exhibits	214
Animation of Colour Photography Principles	221
Motion in Photography	225
Capturing of Motion in Early Photography	225
Early Photographs of Real Motion	232
Serial Photography	234
Chronophotography	244
Candid Photography	262
Cinematograph	276
Endnotes	284
Bibliography	286
List of Exhibits	288