

Detailed Table of Contents

Table of Cases	xiii
Table of Treaties	xvii
Table of Legislation	xix
List of Abbreviations	xxi

1. Administrative Justice: A Transnational Perspective	1
1. Old and New Transnational Situations and Standards	1
2. Limits to the Inquiry	7
3. Structure of the Inquiry	13

PART I—REQUIREMENTS OF ADMINISTRATIVE DUE PROCESS

2. The Requirement to Carry Out a Procedure	17
1. The Legal Importance of Administrative Procedure	17
2. Codification of Administrative Procedure	23
3. National Procedures Under External Influence	27
4. Procedural Requirements for Non-State Authorities	31
5. The Intrinsic Value of a Procedure	33
3. Audi Alteram Partem	35
1. The Closest Thing to an Invariant: Due Process for Civil Servants	35
2. A Minimum Standard: Hearing Adversely Affected Parties	40
3. A Transnational Minimum Standard	47
4. A Minimum Standard for Non-State Authorities	53
5. Conclusions	59
4. The Giving Reasons Requirement	61
1. Origins and Variety of Giving Reasons Requirements	61
2. A Minimum Standard for State Authorities: Justifying Disadvantageous Distinctions	65
3. A Transnational Minimum Standard	70
4. A Minimum Standard for Non-State Authorities	75
5. The Global Diffusion of Due Process Requirements: Two Caveats	78

PART II—RATIONALES FOR DUE PROCESS REQUIREMENTS

5. Variety of Rationales for Due Process Requirements	85
1. The Concept of 'Rationales'	85
2. Rationales of Due Process Within the State	91
3. Rationales of Due Process Beyond the State	94
4. A First Cut at the Argument	101
6. Dignity and Participation	103
1. The Right of Defence	103
2. From the Right of Defence to the Protection of Dignity	105
3. From the Right of Defence to Collaboration and Participation	110
4. Conclusions	118
7. Sound Administration and Cooperation	121
1. Sound Administration	121
2. Cooperation Between Public Authorities	126
3. Conflicting Rationales of Due Process	132
4. The Next Steps	136

PART III—A THEORY OF ADMINISTRATIVE DUE PROCESS BEYOND THE STATE

8. Administrative Due Process: A Conceptual Analysis	139
1. Conceptual Clarity and Operational Standards	139
2. Beyond Non-arbitrariness	140
3. Due Process and Legality: A Distinction	146
4. Due Process of Law as Distinct from Denial of Justice	149
5. Two Lines of a Theory of Due Process	153
9. Administrative Due Process as a General Principle of Public Law	155
1. General Principles of Law in the National and Transnational Arenas	155
2. Due Process as a General Principle	163
3. A Complementary and Corrective Role	170
4. A Foundational Role	173
5. From the Generality of Due Process to its Global Reach	178
10. Administrative Due Process as a Global Principle of Public Law	179
1. Variety of Views About Invariable Laws	179
2. Due Process of Law as the Closest Thing to an Invariant	184
3. Two Objections Refuted	198
4. Implications for Legal Interpretation	204